ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Getting a Ph.D degree is like stepping up a mountain with the help of many people, one step at a time, with bitterness, hardships, frustration, encouragement, and faith. Such a task cannot be completed without the assistance of a small group of people in one's life from time to time. And now it's my chance to express my heartfelt gratitude to all of my loved ones. This thesis is the milestone in the journey towards obtaining my PhD degree. It will be just a stepping stone for me in this vast field of research.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. P. H. Soni, my supervisor, for inspiring me to join the field of research called crystal growth. His inspired leadership, constant encouragement, and unwavering support throughout this Ph. D has greatly aided me in carrying out my research and developing the required abilities to be a successful researcher in my profession. It is an immense honour to have worked under his guidance. Without his tremendous understanding and encouragement in the past few years, it would be impossible for me to complete my study.

It gives me great pleasure in expressing my indebtedness and a deep sense of gratitude to Prof. C. F. Desai. I greatly benefitted from our discussions regarding research shortcomings and his critical queries and suggestions. His immense knowledge and experience have encouraged me in my academic research.

I am grateful to Prof. Haribhai Kataria, Dean, Faculty of Science, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, for valuable support. I am thankful to Head, Department of Physics, Faculty of Science, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara. I am also grateful to other members of the department for assisting me when needed. I express my heartiest thank to Prof. N. L. Singh, Prof. D. K. Kanchan, Prof. M. B. Sureshkumar, Prof. S. K. Mukherjee, Prof. M. Srinivas, Prof. P. K. Mehta, Prof. P.K. Jha, Dr. D. G. Rathod, Dr. K. R. Jotania, Dr. Keyur Vyas, Dr. Mitesh Sarkar, Dr. B. P. Shah, Mr. R. D. Chauhan Dr. R. J. Makwana, Dr. Debjani Bagchi and Dr. Alpa Dashora, for their valuable and prompt help at various stages of my research work.

I am thankful to Dr. A. N. Prajapati (Department of Applied physics, Faculty of Technology) for providing Powder X-ray diffraction facility. Also, I want to extend my thanks to Prof. K. D. Patel and Prof. G. K. Solanki, Department of Physics, Sardar Patel University, for providing certain facilities for the characterization of my crystals.

I want to thank my research colleagues Dr. Manish Patel, Dr. Ashwini Mahadik and Mr. Nimesh Nanda, for helping me to complete this thesis work.

I also want to thank every non-teaching staff and workshop staff of the Department of Physics, Faculty of Science, for their timely help.

I want to thank my departmental friends Chaitanya Limberkar, Dr. Nimesh Patel, Abhishek Sharma, Ratankumar, Dr.Vishwanath, Nishant, Dr. Shilpa Bhavsar, Bhargav Soni and Naresh Degda for keeping cordial spirits and bringing joy during my research period.

At last but most important, I am extremely grateful to my father, Mr. Himmatbhai Chaudhari, for making me understand that knowledge is power and one should never stop learning. He always believed in me and supported me in every decision of my life. I am also thankful to my mother, Mrs. Gitaben Chaudhari, for being a constant source of inspiration for me since childhood, being part of all my sorrows since my early childhood, and allowing me to pursue my dreams. She is the one who gave me moral support throughout my research work. I am very indebted to my parents, without whose help, I could not have finished my work. Without their sacrifices, I would not have achieved what I have in my life thus far. I lack words to express my heartfelt gratitude to my beautiful, loving and most supportive brother Jigar, sister-in-law Shital and cousins Shailesh, Manisha and Hemant for their unwavering support and encouragement as I worked on my thesis.

I wish my special thanks to my beloved wife, Divya Chaudhari, who played a special role during my research journey. She joined me in the last and most difficult phase of finishing this thesis. I feel honoured and admire her patience and care for all this time.

Thank you very much to all who helped me directly or indirectly in various capacities.
