ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Although my name is on its spine, this thesis has only been made possible through the efforts of others too, to whom I owe debts of gratitude that cannot be repaid in a few modest paragraphs. Most immediately, it is the product of my academic environment at the MMBL, Department of Bio-chemistry, M.S. University of Baroda, Vadodara. The accomplishment of any goal calls for hard work, sincerity and dedication, but such an accomplishment of goal becomes achievable and falls within one's reach if one proceeds with proper method and right direction. This becomes accessible through proper guidance and supervision. Again, while accomplishing a difficult task is wide-ranging and sometimes unanticipated difficulties may arise which might make one to lose one's courage and slacken one's dedication. Under such a kind of circumstances a person not only giving guidance but also giving encouragement and moral support is required to be at hand.

At the very outset, I would like to express my feeling of indebtedness to my guide Prof. G. Naresh Kumar (NK Sir), who not only guided me and supervised my work but also gave such a kind of requisite never-failing encouragement and moral support as well. His never ending tea time discussion on science and sometimes on other topics has made me see things in different directions and in different planes. His precious guidance, never-ending patience and zest for science has made my long journey of research without losing courage, passion for science, and slacken dedication.. During my research I never felt like a student and sometimes I use to feel like his colleague as he uses to listen to me patiently. I am extremely grateful to him for giving me an opportunity to learn, think and work in a healthy and liberal environment at Molecular Microbial Biochemistry Lab (MMBL). A few sentences of his, which has become part of my life such as "99% of the people get what they deserve in this life only and only 1% of the people get more or less". "You are not here to change the system; indeed make the most of the existing system and push ahead". I own the credit to him for where ever I am.

I am sure the words which are there in dictionary are not enough to thank him. Thanks a lot for everything!

I would like to express my deep gratitude to Prof. Tara Mehta (Former Head of the Department) and Prof. G. Naresh Kumar (as the current Head of the department), for providing the entire basic infrastructures including library, internet and other research facilities as well as for developing a great work culture with a sense of teamwork and healthy competition in the department.

Very especial thanks to Dr. Acharya whom I consider as teacher, M.Sc. dissertation guide, Colleague, an elder brother. I liked his straight forwardness, perfection, critical nature and especially his "controls". He was the one whom I could share things when I was at my lowest energy level. His ultra long discussions on everything possible on this earth have made me take certain critical decisions. His words of encouragement especially during dinner at Aramana made me think twice about myself. Thanks a lot sir! I will try my best to keep upto my middle name.

A very big thank to Sarita ma'am for having faith in me when I was looking out for Ph.D. without 55 and for persuading hard to higher authorities for taking me in project. Thanks a lot Ma'am.

My gratitude to all my teachers, Prof. L.J. Parekh, Prof. Tara Mehta, Prof. S. S. Katyare, Prof. S. D. Telang, Prof. Rasheedunnisa Begum, Dr. M. D. Jani, , Dr. Jayshree Pohnerkar, Dr. Pushpa Robin and Dr. C. RatnaPrabha is too deep to be expressed in word. I am really indebted to them for responding warmly whenever consulted with my queries and also extending support during the course of this research work.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to Archana Ma'am, Department of Microbiology and Biotechnology Centre, for providing critical comments and solutions to certain problems during my research which helped me a lot in my research work. Apart from research work her delicious food is something which just cannot be forgotton.

Thanks are due to the office staff including Mr. Pethe, Akshitaben, Shaileshbhai, Manishbhai and all other staff members for their help in official matters. A very thanks to Rameshbhai (Nare) for keeping the store open for me whenever needed. I am especially thankful to Johnbhai, for maintaining the departmental garden and planting different kind of plants and for compulsory Christmas party at home. I am thankful to Babu kaka for keeping the hygienity of the department under check. Thanks to Kalpesh and Anilbhai for keeping the lab clean making it wonderful to work. I specially thank Mr. Jeetendra Dave (Jitubhai) for being just a phone call away in providing all the necessary chemicals and other labwares. Especial thanks to him for being friend and experienced suggestions.

I would like to specially thank Bharti Ben for maintaining our lab accounts. A very special thanks to Millind Bhai for all the official help.

I am also thankful to Prof. Daniel, Head of the Botany department for allowing me to use their HPLC in crucial time.

I deeply acknowledge a generous gift from Dr. Soren molin, Department of Microbiology, The Technical University of Denmark, Denmark for providing me with KT2440, SM1443 and BBC443 strains of Pseudomonas putida, Dr. P.S. Poole, Department of Molecular Microbiology, John Innes Centre for providing me with Sinorhizobium meliloti 1021, Dr. M. E. Kovach, Louisiana State University Medical Center, U.S.A for providing me with pBBRMCS-2 plasmid and Dr. Jon Beckwith Department of Microbiology and Molecular Genetics, Harvard Medical School, USA for providing me with monoclonal antibody against E. coli AppA.

This endeavor with out the people around my work bench or work place would have been empty... THE LAB MATES.... I extent my great thanks to Dr. R Karunakaran (KK) who played an important role during my research. He was like brother, teacher, colleague who taught me the integrities of research, taught me how to make contacts, maintenance of lab.... this list is endless. I was privileged to have chemical even in middle of the night. I am also thankful to my senior Dr. Siddharth Srivastava, who had patience to teach me from the basics of the problem and still be cool....My Juniors Ms. Divya Patel (The perfectionist) with ever lasting smile who has influenced my life directly or indirectly in various count....Dr. Prashant Kunjadia.....(The direct hit or Its always possible man...), Sonal madam and Praveena madam for their spiritual empowerment.....Dr. Gopit....(Food lover).....Jisha (Motherly figure and lab manager)..... Aditi (only contemporary singer, new trend lover)....and other lab juniors Mr. Prashant, Jitender, Chanchal, Hemanta for making lab environment a workable place.

I deserve my appreciation to Mr. Murli (Mr. always at your service) Ms. Ruchi Mr. Kuldeep Patel (My biggest contemporary) and Mr. Santosh (The Sarkar) for their cooperation and help which I received when I needed most. And also I extent my thanks to other research scholars especially Ms. Falguni Joshi, Mr. Arif Khan, Sumant, Nandan, Darshan, Subbu, Ketan, Jagat and all the research scholars of Micro Dept..... I am also heartly thankful to Ms Deepa, Botany dept. who has spent her valuable time helping me out in HPLC. Special mention should me made here for persons like Mayur Patel for his assistance at the hour of need.

Fuel is constantly and regularly required to run your engine specially during your heavy work.... I would like to express my understanding to mess Maharaj and his team, especially Soma Kaka for providing the hospitality and good service even in mid night and also to Mr. Narayan for his tireless help with constant smiling face.

I would like to applaud my dissertation students, Khushali, Vaishali, Meghna, Richa, Saumya, Shivani, Grishma, Varsha, Michelle, Anjum, for being a great helping hand all along and for creating a fun-filled work environment.

This long, most remembered journey without friends would not have been possible whose contribution during your ups and downs, professional and personal life makes this journey possible ... Friends like Dr. Jignesh Pandya (JBBL)..... Straight forward and Pure desi man..... Dr. Vihas Vasu....(courageous and concerentive person... Dr. Jyoti..... supportive and caring..... Dr. Subhash (Subhash SIR).....Army man.....Dr. Laxmi Priya (LAXMIIII....gggg....Dr. Romesh (Manipuri) man of perfection and philosphy..... Tushar Rajayaguru (The Kathiawadi).....the real Gujju.....Dr. Shajil (Mallu).... Workaholic and generous.....Keyur Dave (KC).....Johari of the Biochem.....Sanjay Jha...the confident man... Dr. Tripathi (BABA)...Bragdeesh (Hain Dekhenge)....The calm and spiritual man... Dr. Sushil (Chintayu).....Pour point man....Rajesh ....always smiling, charming and helpful person....Harsukh.....Sachin Joshi...Dr. RanBahadur Yadav (Yadooooo).....Dr. Yogendranath (Yogi).....The YES man....

Sahu...The Economist...Dr. Hrudanand Misra (Mishra Ji)... Without friends like you I could not have reached here... THANKS A LOT.....

My thanks go to Dr. Mukta Mohan, Dr. Namita for all those experienced advices and supportive in certain personal fronts....

It is my distinct privilege to acknowledge my JUNORS...Dr. Samir Patel (SAMPAT).....Dr. Munjal...(Sincere man)....Hiren....Chirayu.....Hamendra (KK).... Neeraj (Bhatji).....Iqbal....for night tea session after heavy work, Prakash Pillai(Rafi)...Maulick(ROCKBHAI)...Hina....Jyotika (Rajputana rifles)....Dr. Saiyed,....Pradeep .....Mitesh....Naresh.....for their association and all kind of support during my research work. I express my thanks to Purva...Vijay....Swapnali...Anubha ....Niddish... Mrunal for being my good juniors.

I am further indebted to my sister MONA who always provided me emotional support at the time when I needed it most. I am left with pleasant obligation of expressing my immense love to her. The painstaking sacrifice that she has made to help me in various counts is recorded her. I am equally grateful to my brother ASHU for his keen interest in the progress of this work in diverse ways and for constant encouragement and the faith they keep on me. MY VERY SINCERE and HEARTHFUL THANKS to them.....

WORDS are not there which can express my feelings and thanks for my parents whose love, care, patience, pain stacking sacrifice, encouragement, faith, support and direction.....has helped me to reach the torturous destination with confidence and courage. It is beyond my potential to express fully the eternal debt, which I owe to them. I ALWAYS WONDER WHAT THEY ARE MADE UP OF.....

Above all almighty for everything, for being there with me always.....

May, 2008 Vikas Sharma
