ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

'We all have dreams. But in order to make dreams come to reality, it takes an awful lot of determination, dedication, self-discipline, effort and support of people around you'

First and foremost and the most important, I thank the Almighty for this beautiful opportunity to pursue a PhD. It was a dream for me and You alone made it happen. Without Your grace, I am nothing and with Your blessings I have everything I wish for.

It is my great privilege to extend my heartfelt and sincere gratitude to my guide, Prof. Rasheedunnisa Begum, who has supported me in and out my Ph.D. with her patience, knowledge and belief in me. I attribute the level of my degree to her encouragement, guidance and efforts. My mentor epitomizes what sheer dedication towards one's profession means. She taught me to work in organized manner and she has given me lessons which I take forward to make me a better person and live a future/life.

My sincere obligations to HOD, Prof. Sarita Gupta for all her support and for providing research facilities. I am also grateful to the entire teaching faculty for their guidance and research inputs which made my thesis more meaningful.

I place on record my heartfelt gratitude to Prof. Shweta Saran (JNU, New Delhi) for her tremendous support; she has provided me throughout my Ph.D. Her expertise in Dictyostelium discoideum has escalated my love and knowledge for this beautiful model organism. She has always accepted me as her lab-member. Thank you so much for everything.

I would like to pay my sincere thanks to my Doctoral committee members Prof. G. Archana and Dr. Laxmipriya for their constant positive evaluation during all my annual presentations.

I am also thankful to all non-teaching staff members especially Pethe Sir, Axita Ma'm, Manish bhai, Shailesh bhai, Sandeep bhai and Anil bhai for smooth functioning of all office work. Also I wish to express my gratitude to Bhartiben for taking care of the funding agency related work and making me feel at home.

I would also like to acknowledge UGC-DRS, DBT, CSIR and DBT-MSU ILSPARE for fellowship and infrastructure facilities.

My special thanks to Naresh Sir and Mitesh Sir for all the guidance from day one of my PhD till now. Naresh sir taught me lab management and Mitesh Sir helped me improve my scientific writing skills. Also I wish to thank my immediate seniors Jyotika Ma'm and Hina Ma'm for all the project related guidance.

I take this opportunity to thank Shoaib and Sushila for all the fun, support and happy moments we shared and support during the tough times as new lab juniors during the first year. Special thanks to Shoaib for all the help and memories through-out my PhD.

Words fail when I want to thank this special person, Ashlesha. You have been with me through all my ups and downs like in times when our experiments failed to the times when we got our paper published; together we make a superb unbreakable team. You are not just my lab-mate but a sister.

I am also grateful to Ruma, my roommate. You and Ashlesha made my hostel life a whirlpool of fun, beautiful memories and tasty food.

I wish to thank my lab mates, Mala and Sandeep for all their help and support.

I express my thanks from the bottom of my heart to Shahnawaz (the philosopher), Roma (fun girl), Nirali (The kid- thanks for the homemade food and your stupid queries), Sayantani (the mature gal), Mansi (cutiepie- I'll miss hearing you call Tina Mam), Kriti (fun personified) and Hima for making the lab environment joyful and making it my second home. Thanks for all the special care you all took during my last six months of PhD. I'm gonna miss you all.

I also like to thank my M.Sc friends Anu and Rinsy for all the motivation and all the belief they had in me.

I also take this opportunity to thank all my M.Sc dissertation students Vidushi, Ishita, Nidhi, Aishwarya, Shruti, and Munira. You all have brought out the teacher within me and have been helping hands in my venture of PhD.

I also thank JNU labmates Rakhee Ma'm, Rafia Ma'm and others for providing me with one of the most productive and enjoyable times of my PhD.

Thanks to all research scholars of the department for the constructive criticism and fun.

Next, I wish to thank my hostel warden Geeta Ma'm for all her support through-out my five years of hostel life.

Finally I wish to thank my beloved Daddy and Mummy for their unconditional love, constant support in all types of situations and the belief they had in me. Special thanks to Tincy and Taniya for the love, encouragement and motivation during good as well as bad times.

A big "thank you" to my in-laws for breaking the stereotype. Thank you for believing in me more than me and loving me so much. Also, a big thank you for all your prayers. Jithin, my li'l brother, thank you so much for all your love and support.

I am also heartily grateful to Deepa Aunty, Mathews Uncle, Deena and Rian for all their care and also for making me feel at home even at Baroda.

Last and not at all the least, a big big thank to my wall of strength and support, my beloved hubby Jubichayan (Jubin). I can't thank you enough for all the support you have given me. Thank you for all the sacrifices you made in order to make my Ph.D. tenure smoother and my life so beautiful. You are my inspiration and my encouragement. Without your support and belief in me, this day of writing an acknowledgement for my thesis wouldn't have been possible.

An achievement requires the efforts and support of many people and this work is no different
