"Research is a journey of discovery and every step forward is fueled by the support and encouragement of those who believe in our potential."

First and foremost, I offer my sincere thanks to the Almighty for His grace, guidance and blessings throughout this journey. His divine presence has been my constant source of strength, illuminating my path and instilling in me the perseverance to overcome obstacles and achieve this significant milestone in my academic pursuit.

I would like to extend my deepest gratitude to The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for providing me with the opportunity to pursue my Ph.D. studies. The support and resources offered by the university have been invaluable in shaping my academic journey and enabling me to delve into my research interests.

I owe the Department of Zoology for their constant encouragement and dedication to quality during my doctorate studies. Since I joined the department in 2015, I have been deeply grateful to all of the former department heads, particularly to Profs. P. C. Mankodi, Dolly Kumar, Pragna H. Parikh and K. D. Vachhrajani, for their innovative leadership and unwavering dedication.

Prof. Geeta S. Padate, the late Prof. Vihas T. Vasu, Drs. Hetal Roy, Prakash P. Pillai, Ranjitsinh V. Devkar and Gowri Kumari have my sincere gratitude for their extraordinary knowledge, steadfast direction and unfailing support during my doctorate journey. Their priceless guidance has influenced not just my research projects but also motivated me to strive for academic success. They have been so kind as to share their expertise and experiences with me; I am genuinely grateful.

I also appreciate all of the department's and the university's non-teaching personnel. With my paperwork and documentation, they were quite helpful. For their priceless contributions to my doctorate, I am truly grateful.

My mentor and the current department head, Prof. B Suresh, has my sincere gratitude for his unfailing support, direction and mentoring, which have been like a lighthouse guiding my PhD path. Sir has molded me into a better person in addition to shaping my academic goals with his knowledge, empathy and commitment. Since Sir has always given me guidance and comfort when I was at a crossroads, his mentoring has been nothing short of revolutionary. Like a father, his support is unrestricted and he always pushes me to go above my comfort zone and achieve in life and school. Along with being an academic counselor, Sir has shown me a mentor, confidante and true friend. Working under his instruction has been a privilege and I have no doubt that the knowledge and abilities I have gained will influence my future academic and career goals. Without his unfailing presence, my trip would not have been complete and I will always be grateful.

Isha Ma'am has my deepest gratitude for her unwavering support and direction, which go beyond mentorship to represent a real mother role in my life. Her kind direction has enhanced my academic pursuits and shown me the way to personal development and comprehension. Isha Ma'am has shaped my academic aspirations and the core of who I am, even beyond the classroom. I am incredibly grateful and appreciative of her for her unfailing support, priceless insights and endless compassion.

Professor Daniel Sir and his family have my sincere gratitude for their ongoing cooperation and assistance. The foundation of my doctorate path has been the knowledge, direction and unfailing support of Daniel Sir and Denny Achachan. Their devotion to greatness and their quest of knowledge have motivated me to push the limits of my study and aim for scholarly distinction.

I owe Pushpa Ma'am for her continuous support, direction and caring presence during this PhD path. Beyond her roles as mentor and teacher, Pushpa Ma'am has modeled a motherly role by providing not only intellectual guidance but also compassion and empathy. Her commitment has greatly changed my viewpoint and enhanced my academic development. I would like to thank her very much for her vital contribution to my PhD journey.

The senior lab members Sonam Didi, Shashi Bhaiya, Shweta Didi, Urja Didi and Kashmira Didi have all been instrumental in forming my PhD path. Sonam Didi gave me a strong foundation for my research projects and constant direction and encouragement at every step. Shashi Bhaiya's depth of knowledge and perceptive observations directed my study and added priceless wisdom to my academic endeavors. The lab was made more helpful and the whole learning experience was improved by Shweta Didi's cooperative attitude and commitment to teamwork. Urja Didi's multidisciplinary viewpoint broadened my intellectual boundaries and prompted investigation of novel directions. Throughout my PhD path, I was inspired to overcome obstacles and pursue excellence by Kashmira Didi's tenacity and unflinching resolve. I owe them all a great deal for helping me build a solid basis for my future as a researcher.

I extend my deepest gratitude to Pratyush Sir and Yogini Ma'am for their invaluable love and support. Their guidance and mentorship have profoundly influenced my academic pursuits, instilling in me the confidence and determination to navigate challenges successfully. Furthermore, I express my sincere appreciation to Pranav Bhaiya and Neeraja Didi for their unwavering support and encouragement. Their presence in my life has been a constant source of strength and motivation, contributing significantly to my academic achievements and personal growth. Additionally, I extend my heartfelt thanks to Shashi Bhaiya and his wife Khushali Didi for their unwavering love and support throughout my academic journey. Their encouragement has been instrumental in shaping my path and fueling my aspirations.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to every lab member who has supported this journey within our dynamic environment. Bhaval has made my PhD endeavor easier to proceed with because of her meticulous attention to detail and readiness to help. Pooja's proactive attitude and good organizational abilities have made our lab operations more efficient and streamlined. Team members feel heard and appreciated in Vishakha Didi's supportive atmosphere because of her kind disposition and sympathetic listening abilities. Our lab talks have been enriched by new ideas and solutions generated by Lakshmi's inventiveness and inventive thinking. Anjali has stimulated intellectual development and inquiry in our conversations with her intellectual curiosity and desire to learn. Juhi creates a friendly and enjoyable environment for all members to flourish in the lab because of her upbeat demeanor and love of teamwork.

To all my departmental colleagues and other researchers: your friendship, intellectual insights and cooperative attitude have enhanced my academic experience and advanced my research pursuits. I thank everyone of you.

I am grateful for the chance to guide Dhruv and Vaishnavi during their dissertation process. Their attention to the subject matter and their academic endeavors have been greatly enhanced by their genuinely admirable dedication, enthusiasm and dedication to their studies. I wish them all the very best for their future endeavors.

I would like to thank the Intensive Unit of the Government Poultry Farm in Vadodara for their contribution of fertile RIR eggs, which made this work feasible. Their cooperation has been vital in enabling the study and progressing our knowledge in this area.

Sincere thanks are extended to all my friends, colleagues and students at Union Christian College, Aluva. Both personally and professionally, their unfailing support, friendship and cooperative attitude have been essential. Through thought-provoking conversations, common experiences, or encouragement, their presence has enhanced my academic endeavors and advanced my development as a researcher and teacher. I am very grateful for their ongoing friendship and support, which have made my experience at Union Christian College Aluva genuinely unforgettable.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Ninan and Dr. R. Rajan for their timely support and cooperation. Their responsiveness and willingness to assist have been invaluable, enabling smooth progress and fruitful collaboration in my endeavor. I deeply appreciate their dedication and availability, which have greatly contributed to the success of our work.

Raju Uncle and Kochumol Aunty have my sincere gratitude for so kindly welcoming me into their home while I was pursuing my post-graduation and doctorate. Their kindness, friendliness and steadfast support have given me a cozy haven from which to concentrate on my studies and academic goals. Their compassion and generosity have made my visit with them a very memorable and rewarding one, for which I am extremely grateful. I would also want to thank Kevin and Noel for their friendship and companionship, which have made me feel very much like family. I am appreciative of the priceless memories we have made jointly. Sam Uncle, Mini Aunty, Diana and Daisy have sincere thanks for their kind welcome and courteous hospitality. Their giving and kindness have added to the feeling of support and community I've had while here. I shall always treasure this warmth and kindness and I am incredibly appreciative of the love and support extended to me.

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to Rev. Ashwin Jaise, who has been like a brother to me throughout my studies. His unwavering support and encouragement have been invaluable. I deeply appreciate his kindness and dedication and I extend my warmest wishes to him and his family for all their future endeavors. Thank you, Rev. Ashwin, for being such a significant part of my journey.

I am immensely grateful to all my friends and family members for their unwavering support, encouragement and love throughout my journey. Your belief in me, countless words of encouragement and steadfast presence have been my pillars of strength during both the triumphs and challenges. Your unwavering support has fueled my determination and inspired me to pursue my goals with passion and resilience. I am profoundly thankful for your endless love and support, which have been instrumental in shaping my personal and academic growth.

Appa, Amma and my brother Abhishek have my eternal gratitude for their unfailing support, unfailing love and unceasing encouragement along the way. The foundation of my success and personal development has been their advice, sacrifices and faith in me. They have supported me with unfailing strength and unending love during both happy and difficult times, helping to shape me into the person I am now. Their generosity, knowledge and unbounded love have molded my life and inspired my goals. I owe my amazing parents and brother my sincere appreciation for being my rock-solid supporters and never-ending inspiration. Having my family is a blessing that will never fade.

An enormous debt of gratitude is owed to Appa and Amma, the adored parents of my beloved wife, for their unflinching understanding, support and encouragement during the challenging road of my PhD studies. I am indebted to them for their unfailing support and encouragement. I would like to express my deepest gratitude to Sonichayan, Diya Chechi and Iza Kuttan for their friendliness, support and words of encouragement all during this journey.

My dear wife, Sneha Ann Thomas, has my sincere gratitude for her love, support and company. My compass has been her unfailing faith in me, her limitless patience and her unbounded love at every turn on the road of life. Her tenacity, fortitude and unflinching dedication motivate me every day to aim high and fervently and resolutely follow my goals. I am incredibly fortunate to have her by my side since I know that between us, we can overcome any obstacle and rejoice in every victory. Thank you to my wonderful wife for being my rock, my confidante and my biggest blessing.

Special thanks are due to all the individuals, organizations and funding agencies whose contributions have supported my research and made this thesis possible.

Thanks to the unwavering support of numerous individuals, this significant contribution to research has materialized, shedding light on the understanding of pesticide-induced teratological defects in newborns. In recognition of the invaluable contributions, I dedicate my Ph.D. thesis to all those acknowledged herein.
