ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

SMT. HANSA MEHTA LIBRARY • The M. S. University of Baroda

The completion of this particular journey in my life is owed to so many individuals. I hesitate to begin in fear of missing any.

I offer flowers of gratitude to the Almighty God for his blessings and graces bestowed on me during my research work.

My sincere gratitude to my esteemed Guide Prof. N. Pradhan, Head, Department of Educational Administration, The M.S. University of Baroda for his belief in me and never letting me give up. I can't begin to express my appreciation for his guidance, support and scholarship throughout each stage of this journey. It was then, at every possible turn when I would lose my way that my Guide, Prof. N. Pradhan infused strength and confidence in me and cleared the confusions that used to plague me quite so much. I am immensely grateful to him for his unfailing care and patience, with which he stood by me through the entire period of my study.

My Gratitude also extends to the Head, Prof. S.C Panigrahi, Department of Education and Dean, Prof. S. Kumar, Faculty of Education and Psychology, The M.S University of Baroda.

I would fail in my duty if I leave out the Women Educational Administrators, who graciously took time out of their busy schedules to share their stories with me. May their wisdom, experiences, insights, and advice benefit all who read this thesis. I acknowledge my gratitude to them as they shared their personal, detailed stories of career successes and disappointments. I also would take an opportunity to thank all the people whom I contacted to collect information related to the case.

Indeed, I am blessed not only with a group of strong, supportive faculty members but also with loving friends such as Madhavi, Kashyapi, Jyotsna, Prerana, Sheetal, Preeti who were my constant support. I would also take this opportunity to thank two of my special friends, Vandana, who always was a strong support throughout my study with whom I shared all my ups and downs. How can I forget my dear friend Sonam, who accompanied me for my data collection and spared fifteen days time for me. I thank God to give me such wonderful friends for their unselfish love and affection for me.

I would like to begin my personal "thank you's" with my mother. How does one properly thank a person who dedicated her whole life to giving you everything you ever wanted. Mom, thanks for everything. You have been with me through thick and thin, even shared my family responsibilities so that I can devote time to my doctoral work. I can only say I love you so much.

I would like to thank my heavenly Father Mr. Umed Singh whose love, grace, and blessings made this pursuit possible. A special thanks to my sister Richa for accompanying me for data collection.

I would also like to thank my in-laws, my mother-in-law, brothers in law and sisters in law. A woman should be so lucky to have such wonderful in-laws as I do. Thanks for being there for my child those many times when I was away for my data collection. Your support never faltered and I will be eternally grateful.

Thanks to my loving husband, for dealing with my emotional mood swings when things did not go as expected with work, and understanding when I did not have time for him. Not only did he accompanied me for data collection, he encouraged me to succeed, and also made it possible for me to do so. I will not forget the weekends and evenings he spent alone while I researched. You are just absolutely amazing. You have been my rock and my strength throughout this journey. It was your love that has made me what I am and more than I should be. You are my hero. Thanks my dear husband. I am greatly indebted to my little child Kshitij Godara who never complained when I left him alone for data collection. He never made me feel guilty of leaving him alone. Both my husband and child willingly sacrificed their share of time with me.
