Treading this tumultuous journey of Ph.D would not have been possible without the benefaction of all the great people who kept my boat sailing through thick and thin. Though words might not suffice, but I would like to express my heart filled thanks to all the people who were directly or indirectly associated with my journey of Ph.D. Completing the PhD is a big achievement on its own and it would not have been possible without the invaluable support of several people.

First and foremost, I wish to record my deep sense of gratitude and profound thanks to my research supervisor Dr. Ranjitsinh Devkar, at the Department of Zoology, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda (MSUB) for his keen interest, inspiring guidance and a constant encouragement that he provided throughout the duration of my work to bring this thesis into fruition. I wish I'm able to imbibe atleast a few of the many qualities that he possesses in personal and professional life. A mere thank you doesn't do justice to all the faith that he has showed in me even when I had my doubts. I consider myself fortunate enough that I got opportunity to work under his guidance. I express my sincere and heartiest thanks to, to Prof. P. C. Mankodi, former Head, and Prof. Dolly Kumar, current Head, Department of Zoology, MSUB, for providing me with facilities to carry out my research work, for their constant support, motivation and encouragement which helped me in completing my thesis. I would also like to acknowledge the past and the present faculties of the department, Prof. Kauresh Vachhrajani, Prof. Pragna Parikh, Prof. Geeta Padate, Dr. Sunita Salunke, Dr. Suresh Balakrishnan, Dr. Hetal Roy and Dr. U. K. Gowri Kumari Prof. Vihas Vasu and Dr. Prakash Pillai, for their kind support and encouragement throughout my PhD tenure. I specially thank all the clerical staff of the department, Late Shree Sangeet Patel, Shailesh Chikne, Hemant Parmar, Hitesh Suthar, Urmilaben Patel, Rajesh Nayak and Gulab Yadav, for their constant help and co-operation in the hassle-free accomplishment of administrative work.

I am thankful to Prof. Rajesh Singh, Department of Biochemistry and Dr. Kishore Rajput, Department of Botany, MSUB, for providing access to their laboratory instrumentation whenever required. I further express my gratitude to Prof. Sarita Gupta, Co-ordinator, DBT-MSUB-ILSPARE for allowing the use of Central Instrument facility at the Dr. Vikram Sarabhai Science Block, MSUB.

I consider myself lucky to have a friendly, cheerful and an encouraging work environment in my lab. Dr. Jaymesh Thadani, Dr. Shweta Patel and Dr. Sarmita Jana were the most helping and supportive seniors. Shweta di and Sarmita di helped me in acclimatizing myself in the lab during my early days and taught me the do's and don'ts of working in cell culture area. They were like my elder sisters.

A very special thanks to Dr. KapilKumar Upadhyay and Dr. Kavita Shirsath. I consider both of them as my mentors after Devkar sir. Kapil sir trained me in cell culture techniques, molecular biology techniques and animal experiments during the initial stage of my PhD. His dedication for research has always been an inspiration for me during my early days. Kavita di was always ready in helping me with every small and big problems of mine, even after completion of her PhD. I am very grateful to her for being there with me in this rollercoaster ride and without you this journey would have been impossible. Again, thank you so much for caring for me and being by my side always me as my elder sister. I really miss the fun that we used to have during overnight cell culture experiments and small breaks in between the protocols.

I am indebted to Aliasgar Vohra for being my best colleague in the lab. I could rely on him for all the animal experiments whenever my absence in the lab was unavoidable. We both always worked as a team and his ever-smiling face and positivity always motivated me and helped me work with enthusiasm. I would also like to thank Ali for helping me in the administrative work for the SERB project. I would also like to thank Hitarthi for her unconditional support whenever I was in need during my PhD; your braveness and positive attitude is commendable. Also, thank you for sharing your homemade delicious Gujarati food with us. Animal experiments carried out for my PhD work would have not been possible without the help and support of all the labmates. Nilay and Shruti, even though you joined in the last phase of my PhD, were always helpful. I am thankful to Nilay for his creative instinct which helped me in making images and flowcharts for my thesis and Shruti for critically proof-reading my thesis. I believe you both will maintain the momentum of the lab with your hard work and commitment. It was a pleasant experience working with you all and the memories will forever hold special place in my heart.

I would also like to thank Dr. Jaldeep Laghnoja, Dr. Lipi Buch, Dr. Kangkan Sarma and Dr. Ruzbeh Mirza, for the unforgettable fun memories of Research lab-1. I appreciate all the help that all of you have rendered to me in some or the other way. I would further acknowledge all the research scholars of the department for maintaining a healthy and friendly environment.

I acknowledge the financial support provided by Science and Engineering Research Board (SERB) (EMR/2015/002001), New Delhi, India.

I would also like to thank the administrative department of MSUB head office, for facilitating a speedy execution of the administrative processes right from PhD registration to the final submission of this thesis.

I am grateful for my parents Mumma and Papa whose constant love and support kept me motivated and confident. With each step I took ahead, they stood behind me as rock-solid pillars and I owe all my accomplishments and success to them. Deepest thanks to my sister Surbhi for always being supportive and encouraging. You are the best sister anyone could ever have. My heartfelt regards goes to my in-laws family for being extremely supportive and understanding. I am indebtedly grateful to them for always offering me delicious food after returning home from day long tiring work in the lab. Finally, I owe my deepest gratitude to my husband Abhishek, I am forever thankful for his unconditional love and support throughout the entire journey of PhD. I have no words to thank my son Hridhaan, he was in a new world when he was born and knew nothing, but his support helped me to complete my PhD in time. Finally, I would like to thank everybody who have helped me in one way or the other in reaching this important milestone of my life and whose names I might have inadvertently missed out. I thank the Almighty for giving me the strength and patience to work through all these years.
