

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my research supervisor, Prof. D. M. Maurya, for giving me the opportunity to pursue research and for his continuous support and insightful guidance during the process. He ignited my interest in tectonic geomorphology, structural geology and shallow subsurface geophysics.

I am thankful to the Head, Department of Geology for providing facilities to carry out the present study.

Prof. L. S. Chamyal, FNASc has always been a source of motivation for me to conduct research work. He always inspired me to publish high-quality distinctive articles. Dr. Alpa Sridhar is thanked for her suggestions that helped with my research work. Dr. Soumyajit Mukherjee, Associate Professor, IIT Bombay is thanked for active involvement in my research work and advising me on how to approach issues related to brittle deformation.

Fruitful discussions and valuable suggestions from Dr. Atul Patidar, Associate Professor, UPES, Dehradun helped in my GPR related work. He instructed me how to process and interpret GPR data efficiently, as well as how to extract geomorphological and structural information from GPR data. Dr. Nitesh Khonde, Scientist, BSIP, Lucknow and Dr. Vikas Chowksey, Executive Engineer (Reservoir), ONGC Ltd. are thanked for their frequent encouragement and suggestions anytime I needed them.

I thank my fellow research scholars Ms. Naimisha Vanik, Mr. Abhishek Kumar, Mrs. Prabhuti Tiwari and Mr. Akash Padmalal for their active participation in the field. It was possible to collect extensive field measurements, conduct detailed GPR surveys and geomorphological observations only through their active involvement.

I am grateful to the Ministry of Earth Sciences (MoES) for providing financial assistance in the form of a research project sanctioned to Prof. D. M. Maurya and Prof. L. S. Chamyal. I am thankful to the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) for supporting me with a Senior Research Fellowship, which allowed me to continue my research work.

Finally, I am extremely thankful to my understanding family for their constant support throughout. This work would not have been possible without the blessings of my parents, who have always believed in me and encouraged me to achieve my goals.
