

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The investigator takes this opportunity to express his deep sense of gratitude to his guide Dr. (Mrs.) P. M. Buch for her excellent guidance and constant encouragement.

Heart felt thanks are further due to rectors, vice rectors, heads of faculties, instructors, teacher trainees and community participants of the Northern teachers colleges for their help in providing the needed data for the study.

The investigator is also grateful to all the members of Centre of Advanced Study in Education for providing academic climate during the study period.

Lastly, I am indebted to my family members who have extended their constant support and encouragement for completing my study while being miles away from them.
