

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I had the privilege to undertake this study in the CASE, Faculty of Education and Psychology, M.S. University of Baroda, Baroda under the inspiration of my guide Dr. K.S. Joseph, Reader in Education, CASE.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all those who have in one way or the other helped me in this academic pursuit, which otherwise, would have been impossible to accomplish.

The present study would not have seen the light of the day had it not been for the inspiring encouragement, generous help and guidance of Dr. K.S. Joseph, Reader in Education, CASE, The M.S. University of Baroda, Baroda. In fact, words fail adequately to express my deep sense of gratitude for his kindness. His constant encouragement, timely advice and clear guidance enabled me to complete this study.

I am also indebted to Prof. Sneha Joshi, Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, The M.S. University of Baroda for her constant encouragement and inspiring support. I am also thankful to Prof. D.R. Goel, Head, CASE, for his keen interest in providing me with the required academic support.

I heartily wish to extend sincere thanks to Dr. Ashutosh Biswal for stimulating my thinking and clarifying my ideas during the course of the study.

I also wish to express my gratitude to Dr. Sudharshan for his scholarly comments and useful suggestions.

I am also thankful to Dr. R.G. Kothari and Dr. N. Rajaram, Head of Sociology Department for providing timely advice and useful assistance.

I express my gratitude to the librarians of CASE library, Hansa Mehta library, M.S. University of Baroda, Baroda, and CIEFL Library, Hyderabad, Yarmouk University, Jordan, for their help in getting the relevant reference materials, books and journals related to the study.

I fall short of words to express my feeling towards my father-in-law, Mr. Mahmoud Saleh Abu-Tapanjeh, mother-in-law, Mrs. Duniya Mahmoud Abu-Tapanjeh, and my brother-in-laws, Mr. Mohammad, Mr. Ahmed, Mr. Iyman for their constant moral support, encouragement and unconditional love which helped me in the successful completion of this study.

My hearty thanks goes to my mother Gunisana from whom I lay the foundation of this study and my brothers and sisters, especially Inaobi for his valuable help rendered during the course of the study.

And, no words can express my deep sense of feeling towards my husband Mr. Abdussalam Mahmoud Abu-Tapanjeh for his flawless typing and above all for providing his full moral support and keen interest at all the stages in the study. His incessant suggestions and inspiring encouragement and tremendous help during the course of the study helped me the most in the successful completion of this present study. I also express my heart deep feelings to my son Hamzah for his unconditional love and co-operation.

Last but not the least, I also wish to express my gratitude to Mr. Manjit Banga and his working staff of Midea Point, Fatehgunj for helping me in typing and timely completion of my work.
