

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In preparing the present doctoral study in a period of twenty-five months, the investigator received very valuable help from some individuals, organizations and agencies. He would wish to acknowledge particularly the gracious and precious help from the following :

- Professor D.M. Desai, his research guide, for his painstaking and illuminating guidance and his planning acumen, dynamism and vigour to exact work from his doctoral students.
- The doctoral students of the Department of Educational Administration in the Faculty of Education and Psychology for the biradari - cooperation and help extended to the investigator as a fellow traveller.
- His Principal, Dr. Vishnubhai A. Patel, of Sarvajanic College of Education, Godhra, other colleagues and B.Ed. students for the help received in data collection and processing.
- Individuals like Dr. N.S. Pathak, Reader, Department of Psychology, M.S. University of Baroda; Professor M.M. Joshi, P.T. Arts and Science College, Godhra; Retired

Principal Shri C.U. Desai, Esplanade High School, Bombay; Principal V.P. Agnihotri, Sarvajanic College of Commerce, Godhra; Professor C.K. Sukumaram, Commerce College, Godhra; Shri Jagdishbhai Trivedi, Educational Inspector, Panchmahals District; Shri J.G. Danawala, District Education Officer, Kheda District; Dr. B.N. Patel, Principal, Gangadhra High School, Gangadhra, (Surat District); and last but not the least his own daughter Kvm. Kalpana Pandya for manifold help in data collection, processing or proof reading.

- Librarian, CASE Library, Smt. Hansa Mehta Library, Baroda, and American Library, Bombay.

The investigator would like to acknowledge deeply the help received by him from Shri N.G. Bhavsar for typing this thesis neatly inspite of his heavy pre-occupation with other assignments and indifferent health.

He is also highly indebted to the principals and teachers of the sampled high schools of Kheda District and Panchmahals District for readily serving as respondents to his many and long questionnaires and rating scales.

He would also like to acknowledge the motivating and stimulating cooperation and silent services rendered to him by his wife Smt. Madhu and for her personal enthusiasm which, in no small measure, helped him to apply himself painstakingly and with the fullest possible concentration to the challenging tasks presented by his doctoral study.

Lastly, the investigator thanks all those who helped him directly or indirectly in completing this research study and bringing it to the present stage.

Godhra

April, 1975

Dalsukhbhai G. Pandya
B.Sc., M.Ed.
Lecturer,
Sarvajanik College of Education
Godhra (Panchmahals)