

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My PhD life has been supported by so many that acknowledgements turn out to be longer than the thesis abstract.

I give all honour and glory to the almighty for gracing me with the opportunity to take up research work and bring it to completion.

A research advisor is a person who always talks good about you despite all your tantrums. First and foremost, I express my indebtedness and infinite gratitude to my guide Prof. R. C. Patel, Head, Department of Education Centre for Advanced studies in Education (CASE) and Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara, for providing me with the opportunity to undertake research work under his guidance, in the middle of my work. I learnt (and still learning) a great deal from Guruji - how to nurture a thought from idea to presentable work, how to present work well, and how to make your student go through a night-out for even a rebuttal. His ability to manage students amidst his administrative work is something that puzzles so many people around. He allowed me to work independently on problems that interested me and fully trusted my limited ability. I thank him with deep gratitude.

I am very grateful to Dr Anjali Khirwadkar for providing her valuable guidance, imperative encouragement and never-ending zeal for quality work for her continuous encouragement, thoughtful advice, practical guidance that she provided during the initial period of my research work.

I wish to convey my thanks to Prof. R.G. Kothari. I am very thankful to Prof. D. R. Goel for illuminating the wisdom and power during my doctoral study course, and my sincere thanks to Prof. S.C. Panigrahi for every encouraging word.

I am also thankful to the Researchers' forum, Tuesday Seminar Committee, and special thanks to Nisha, Shourya, Aditi, Rinky for their valuable suggestions, queries and inputs for improving the quality of the research at different points of time during the inception of the study. I extend my Special thanks to Jaya, who always has and inspires me to withstand every situation.

I express my special thanks to all the Experts for their valuable inputs and suggestions for preparation and validating my data collection tools, especially Dr Chaya Goal, Dr Rina, Dr Prerna, Dr Rajni, Dr Alka smart, Dr Madhavi, Dr Priti Choudhry, Dr A V Jayalakshmi, Dr Anjali Khirwadkar, Dr Himangani Lakhera, Dr Rajesh. Without their guidance, support and expert comments on tools for the research, this would not have been possible.

I would like to offer my thanks to Prof. Pradhan, Prof. R.S. Mani, Prof. Pushpanadham, Prof. Ashutosh Biswal, Dr Sathish Pathak, Dr Dipti Oza, Dr Sujata Srivastava, Dr Anjali Mehta for their full support and helping me in all means.

I would like to thank Baselios Public School and Bright Day CBSE School, Teachers and Students for all kinds of support and cooperation during my data collection.

I am very grateful to UGC for providing financial support from 2014-2017, and also my sincere thanks to office staffs of CASE and Faculty of Education and Psychology, The M. S. University of Baroda, Vadodara, especially Divya mam, Anil Bhai, Vandana Mam for helping me in all regards. Special thanks to Shrimali sir for providing library support.

My words fall short for expressing my gratitude to my Parents and Parents-in-Law and my family for their constant encouragement, care, attention and help in their ways and remained a source of inspiration and strength for all my endeavours.

Finally, I thank all who contributed their share in my work, their silent presence, which preserved with me throughout the work and continuously provided me with eternal strength.
