

C O N T E N T S

Page

PREFACE	7...	...	i - iv
CONTENTS	i - x
LIST OF TABLES	i - vii
LIST OF CHARTS, FIGURES AND MAPS	i
Annexures.	i
PART - A
CHAPTER - 1
1.0	Introduction				...	1
1.1	Historical background to the development of Educational administration.	7
1.2	Concern for efficiency in administration	8
1.2.1	Educational Administration: Efficiency drive.	9
1.2.3	Studies on Leadership behaviour	11
1.3	Exploration of Concepts	12
1.3.1	The Concept of Administrator Behaviour	13
1.3.2	Importance of environment on the behaviour of administrators.	14
1.3.3	Competency in Administration.	19
1.3.4	Halpin's Paradigm	20
1.3.5	School Administrators' leadership behaviour.	25
1.3.6	Functions of leadership relating to School Principals.	28
1.3.7	Dimensions of Leader-behaviour.	29
1.3.8	Initiating Structure behaviour.	31
1.3.9	Consideration behaviour.	"

	Page
1.3.10 Leadership Styles.	32
1.3.11 Components of Administrator Behaviour Description Scale.	37
1.3.11.1 Communication.	38
1.3.11.2 Representation.	41
1.3.11.3 Organization.	42
1.3.11.4 Integration.	47
1.3.12. The Six Dimensions of Administrator Behaviour.	49
1.4 The Concept of Organizational climate ...	56
1.4.1 Teachers' Behaviour.	62
1.4.2 Principals' Behaviour.	63
1.4.3 The Climate Types.	67
1.4.3.1 The Open Climate.	68
1.4.3.2 The Autonomous Climate ...	69
1.4.3.3 The Controlled Climate.	71
1.4.3.4 The Familiar Climate.	73
1.4.3.5 The Paternal Climate ...	74
1.4.3.6 The Closed Climate.	76
1.5 The O.C.I.	78
1.6 The Concept of Teacher Morale.	"
1.6.1 Origin of the Concept of Morale ...	80
1.6.2 What is Morale ...	81
1.6.3 Measurement of Teacher Morale ...	82
1.6.3.1 Purdue Teacher Opinionnaire... ..	83
1.6.3.2 School Survey of Caughlan	"
1.6.3.3 Teacher Morale Inventory.	84

	Page
1.7	The Concept of Dogmatism. 85
1.8	Relevance of the Present Study 89
1.8.1	Urgency in selecting the present Study 93
1.9	Statement of the Problem. 95
1.10	Definition of Some important terms.. "
1.10.1	Administrator Behaviour. "
1.10.2	Educational Administration... .. 96
1.10.3	Administrative Process. 96
1.10.4	Leader Behaviour. 97
1.10.5	Teacher Morale 98
1.10.7	Dogmatism. "
1.10.8	Goals "
1.10.9	Objectives. "
1.11	Objectives of the Study. 99
1.11.1	Tools used in the Study 101
1.12	Assumptions 103
1.13	Hypothesis Framed 104
1.14	Research Design. 107
1.14.1	Location. 108
1.14.2	Population "
1.14.3	The Sample. "
1.14.4	Respondents. 109
1.14.5	Research Tools used. "
1.14.6	Statistical Techniques "
1.15.	Chapter's salient References 110
 111-115

	Page
CHAPTER - II
2.0 Introduction.	116
2.1 } 2.2 } Growth of Education Department.	118
2.2.1 Developmental activities of the Education Department.	119
2.3 Towards "Education for All".	120
2.4 The School Meals Programme.	123
2.5 School Improvement Movement.	124
2.6 Increase in the number of school students.	125
2.7 Incentives to Student and Teachers.. . . .	126
2.7.1 Teachers' Homes: Monetary assistance.	127
2.8 Towards improved standards.	128
2.8.1 Ten Year School Plan.	129
2.8.2 Inservice Training for Teachers.	130
2.8.3 Science Conferences and Science Exhibtion.	132
2.9 Seperate branches and New Department.	134
2.9.1 a) Collegiate Education Department.. . . .	135
2.9.2 b) Medical Education.	138
2.9.3 c) Polytechnical Education...	139
2.9.4 d) Agriculture.	140
2.9.5 e) Non-formal Education.	141
2.9.6 f) Department of Public Libraries...	142
2.9.7 g) The Tamilnadu Text-book Society.. . . .	143
2.9.8 h) Government Examinations.	144

		Page
2.10	Some notable developments in the Tamil Nadu State Education System in recent years.	146
2.11	Expansion of the Directorate of Public Instruction in Tamil Nadu State.	149
	References.	151
CHAPTER - III:
3.1	Rationale behind the review of related researches.	153
3.2	Administrator Behaviour and the role of the Principal.	155
3.2.1	Foreign Studies.	156
3.2.2	Indian Researches.	165
3.2.3	Implications for the present researcher....	167
3.3	Organizational Climate of the School. ...	169
3.3.1	Foreign Studies	"
3.3.2	Indian Researches	175
3.3.3	Implications for the present Researcher....	180
3.4	Teacher Morale: its significance to teacher life.	181
3.4.1	Foreign Studies.	"
3.4.2	Indian Researches.	187
3.4.3	Implications for the present researcher.	189
3.5	The dogmatism of administrative heads. ...	191
3.5.1	Foreign studies.	193
3.5.2	Indian studies	193
3.5.3	Implications for the present researcher.	195
3.6	Achievements of Supervision work in the improvement of teaching-learning in the school.	196

	Page
3,6,1 Foreign Studies.	198
3.6.2 Indian Researches.	199
3.6.3 Implications for the present researcher.	202
3.7 The Traditional or Progressive character of schools.	203
3.7.1 Foreign studies.	205
3.7.2 Indian studies.	206
3.7.3 Implications for the present researcher....	209
3.8 Self evaluation of administrators... ..	210
3.8.1 Studies done on the theme abroad.... ..	211
3.8. 2 Indian Studies.	212
3.8.3 Implications for the present researcher....	"
PART - B References	213-218
CHAPTER - IV:
4.0 Introduction.	219
4.1 The Problem, Scope and limitations.. ..	"
4.2 Nature of Sample	223
4.3 Research Instruments.. ..	226
4.3.1 Tool No.1	228
4.3.2 Tool No.2	234
4.3.3. Tool No.3	242
4.3.4 Tool No.4	247
4.3.5 Tool No.5	248
4.3.6 Tool No.6	250
4. 3.7 Tool No.7	252
4.4 Collection, Classification and Tabulation of Data.... ..	255

	Page
4.4.1 Personal data of Principals/ Supervisors.	257
4.4.1.1 Experience of Principals/Supervisors.	258
4.4.1.2 Sex of the Principals/Supervisors... ..	259
4.4.1.3 Percentage of time spent on different activities by the Principals/ Supervisors.	"
4.4.2 Information about Teachers... ..	262
4.4.2.1 Age of the Teachers... ..	"
4.4.2.2 Sex of the Teachers... ..	264
4.4.2.3 Teaching experience of the teachers.	"
4.4.2.4 Income of the teachers.	266
4.4.3 Caste of the teachers and Principals/Supervisors.	267
4.4.4 Qualifications of teachers and Principals.	268
4.4.5 Information about schools.... ..	270
4.4.5.1 Size of the Schools Sampled..	"
4.4.5.2 Number of S tandards of education provided in the school.	271
4.4.5.3 Urban-rural Category of schools.	273
4.5 Identification of organizational climate of the Secondary Schools in the Tamil Nadu State.	274
4.5.1 Similarity Score.	278
4.5.2 Inter-correlations among the OCDQ Sub-tests	"
4.5.3 Percentage distribution of school among the Six Climates.	280
4.6 Identification of administrator behaviour in Secondary Schools of Tamil Nadu.. ..	286

	Page
4.7	Morale categories of teachers in the Secondary Schools of Tamil Nadu state. 292
4.8	Achievements of Supervision work in the improvement of teaching-learning in the school 298
4.9	Traditional/Progressive school scale ... 300
4.10	Dogmatism scale 302
4.11	Self Rating Scale 303
CHAPTER - V:	References. 304
5.0	Introduction. 305
5.1	Administrator Behaviour of school principals, is correlated to organizational climate of the school. 307
5.2	Climate of the school and morale of the teachers are related. 311
5.3	Morale of the teachers and their scores on the "Esprit" dimension of the OCDQ are related. 314
5.4	Climate of the school and the traditional character or progressiveness of a school are not related. 316
5.5	Effective administrators exhibit high Initiating structure and high consideration and ineffective administrators low initiating structure and low consideration. 322
5.6	Administrator behaviour and management of the schools are related. 324
5.7	Administrator behaviour of the school principal is related to the morale of teachers. 326
5.8	Administrator behaviour of the principals is related to the achievements of their supervision work. 329

		Page
5.9	Achievements of Supervision work differ in traditional/progressive schools.	334
5.10	Administrator behaviour of the school principal influences the traditional or progressive character of the school. ...	336
5.11	Administrator behaviour and dogmatism are related.	338
5.12	Dogmatism of principals and morale of teachers is related.	343
5.13	Administrator behaviour of school principals and their experience in years of school administration are related.	346
5.14	There is no change in administrator behaviour due to the sex of the principals.	349
5.15	Administrator Behaviour of school principals differ in urban and rural schools.	350
5.16	Morale of teachers and their experience as teachers are not related.	351
5.17	Morale of teachers is not influenced by the management of the school. ...	354
5.18	Traditionalism or progressiveness of a school is not related to teacher morale.	357
5.19	Achievements of supervision work by the school principal is related to morale of teachers.	360
5.20	Achievements of supervision work by the principals is related to:	364 to 371
	1) Size of the school
	2) Rural urban location of the school
	3) Sex of the School principals
	4) Age of the School principals.
	5) Percentage of time spent on supervision work by the school principals.

		Page
5.24	Perception of teachers(real-staff) and perceptions of principals (real self) differ.....	373
5.22	Administrator behaviour of principals measured by the AEDS and Self Rating Scale do not differ.	376
5.23	conclusion.	379
CHAPTER - VI
6.0	Introduction.	384
6.1	Section A : Major Findings....	386
6.1.1	Some other Ancillary Findings.	401
6.2	Section B: Suggestions.	404
6.2.1	Recommendations.	412
6.3	Summary and Conclusion.	415
