

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study is the fruit of several years of painstaking work, and the encouragement of various people. The moment has now come for me to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation to each one of those who have helped me to transform this dream into reality.

I heartily thank Prof.C.V.Chandrasekhar, Professor and Head of the Dept. of Dance, M.S.University of Baroda, my guiding Teacher and dance-Guru for helping me throughout my research work both in the practical and theoretical aspects. It is under him that most of my innovative work in the field of dance, introducing Christian Themes in the Bharata Nātyam Dance Style has been accomplished. I also express my gratitude to my Dance teachers, late Mrs.Anjali Mehr, Guru Kubernath Tanjorekar, Miss.Nargis K, Shri.Pradeep Baruah and Mrs.Praful Patel all from the Dept. of Dance for encouraging and inspiring me throughout my student life at the University.

the Rosary School Community for accommodating me in their house during the period of my study. I also take this opportunity to thank the Society of the Divine Word (SVD) and its members for the material and moral support, without which this venture would have been almost impossible. My thanks to Rev. Joseph Madathany SVD, the former Superior of this organization and Rev. Joseph Panthalatty SVD, the present Superior for their keen interest and encouragement.

It would have been impossible to conduct this kind of research work without the co-operation of the people of different communities in the villages. I am extremely grateful to all those to whom I talked, observed and shared a common bond with and who accepted me as one of them. The understanding provided by Dr. Chummar Choondal, Kerala Folklore Academy, Trichur (who also arranged some of my field-work trips) has been invaluable. Shri. Anthony Samy, Smt.
