

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the writing and completion of this dissertation, I owe a lot to the efforts and co-operation extended by various people.

In the first place, I am extremely indebted to my guide Dr. Sunanda M. Phadke, Reader, Department of Clothing and Textiles, Faculty of Home Science, M.S. University of Baroda. She has played a crucial role in shaping my academic sensitivities at different stages of my academic life. But for her patience, tolerance and unflinching help which she gave me throughout the course of this study right from formulation of the problem to correction of drafts, this study would not have reached its present state.

I express my sincere gratitude to Prof. T.B. Naik, Director, Tribal Research Training Institute, Gujarat Vidhyapith, for his generous help and valuable tips during my entire field work.

I am thankful to my senior teachers: Prof. B.N. Chaulkar and Ms. S.I. Patel, who have facilitated my work by being considerate and co-operative during their Headship. I am also thankful to Shri Balakrishnaiah, Head, Department of Clothing and Textiles, for providing the departmental facilities.

My sincere thanks to Prof. N.S. Pathak, Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, for his guidance in the statistical analysis of the study.

I wish to thank Shri P.V. Hathi, Tribal Administrator, Dahod; late Shri Ramesh Desai, Songadh; Shri Arvind Desai, Bardoli; Shri Gelubhai Naik, Ahwa for the co-operation extended in terms of their useful suggestions, conveyance and accommodation facilities during data collection. I am thankful to all my respondents for their willing co-operation in providing the necessary data.

I extend my sincere thanks to Dr. Rajaram, Reader, Department of Sociology and Ms. Rajaram for giving valuable suggestions throughout the course of this study.

I am grateful to Shri K.R. Shah, Lecturer, Faculty of Fine Arts, for patiently and generously helping me with the schematic drawings of the study.

I would also like to express my heartfelt thanks to Ms. H.K. Chavan, Ms. Satvinder Kaur and Ms. Hemlata Patel.

I find it extremely difficult to adequately express gratitude to my parents but for whose sacrifices, blessings and constant encouragement, I might not have taken up and completed the venture.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank my daughter for helping me in ways more than one. But for her patience and tolerance, I could not have completed this work successfully.
