

APPENDIX - VI

A LIST OF SUGGESTED TOPICS OF RESEARCH ON SECONDARY EDUCATION FOR GIRLS

There are several facets of secondary education for girls in the Gujarat State which needs to be further investigated. On some aspects of the problem further data need to be collected. Some of these facets and aspects of secondary education for girls are listed below so that some researchers could focus their study on them. This would make the study of the problem fuller and more rewarding for accelerating pace of expansion of girls' secondary education in the Gujarat State.

The Study of the Sociological factor that helped or hindered the development in the nineteenth and twentieth century upto the present times.

The Study of the relationship between the development of higher education of girls and their secondary education.

The Study of the relationship between the development of primary education of girls and their secondary education.

The testing of the hypothesis that separate girls' high schools staffed mostly by women teachers help speedy expansion of secondary education of girls.

A Study of the urban and rural parents' attitude to imparting high school education to their daughters.

A Critical Study of the locatrnr of girls' high schools and mixed high schools in different districts in relating to accelerating the pace of expansion of secondary education for girls.

A Critical examination of the impact of the reform of free secondary education of girls of the Gujarat State on expansion in urban and rural areas.

A Comparative study of the development of secondary education for girls in the Gujarat State with that in any advanced State like Kerala and with that in any backward State Like Rajasthan.

Expansion of teacher education in Gujarat in relation of to the speedy expansion of girls' secondary education.

A Case Study of some backward districts of Gujarat in respect of secondary education for girls.

An inquiry into the perceptions of high schools girls about co-education and differential curricula.

A Study of the academic problems of high school girls.

A Study of the behavioural problems of high school girls.

A Study of motivation and achievement of high school girls.

Evaluation of the girls' high schools of Gujarat.

A Study of comparative effectiveness of male and female teachers of girls high schools.

A Study of human relationship in girls' and mixed high school from the point of accelerated expansion and reduction of stagnation and wastage in the case of girls' students.

A Study of job opportunities for high school educated girls in the Gujarat State.

A Study of the programme of work-experiences in secondary schools for girls in Gujarat.

A Study of the development of secondary education for girls in the context of manpower needs.

A Study of the development of secondary education of girls in the context of modernising the Gujarati Society.

A Study of the Caste factor in the development of secondary education for girls in the Gujarat State.

The role of the private enterprise vis-a-vis government effort in the expansion of secondary education for girls.

A Study of the incentives for girl- students and women teachers from the point of achieving rapid expansion of girls' secondary education.

- Development of separate administrative and supervisory machinery for promoting girls' secondary education.
- Perspective planning for correcting imbalance in secondary education of boys and girls.
- A critical study of the recommendations of Committees and Commissions on the development of secondary education for girls.
- Continuing education for girls for middle school educated and non-matriculated girls.
- A critical study of the development of secondary education of Muslim girls in Gujarat.
- A Critical study of the development of secondary education of girls of backward classes in Gujarat.
- A Study of the development of secondary education of girls in Saurashtra and Kutch upto 1956.
- Studies of girls' high schools in the Gujarat State established in the nineteenth century.
- Universal, free and compulsory secondary education for girls.
- Female education as reflected in Gujarati drama and novels of the Gandhian era.