TABLES

		Page
1.	Number of Schools in the Population, Sample and Responses in Each Sub-stratum(Cell).	35
2.	Number of Basic Schools in Andhra State.	60
3.	Number of Trained and Untrained Teachers.	60
4.	Productivity and Net Earnings of Basic Elementary Schools for the Andhra State Since Its Formation.	62
5.	Expenditure on Basic Education.	63
6.	Details Regarding the Productivity And Net Earnings in Basic Training Schools of Andhra State.	65
7.	Basic Schools, Scholars and Attendance In Telangana.	67
8.	Expenditure on Basic Schools (Telangana - 1962-66)	68
9.	Number of Basic Schools.	73
10.	Number of Scholars.	75
11.	Percentage of Wastage in Basic and Traditional Elementary Schools.	75
12.	Number of Teachers Trained and Untrained employed in the Basic Schools.	76
13.	Graduate Teachers Retrained in Basic Education.	77
14.	Expenditure on Basic Education.	80
15.	Number of Training Schools and Enrolment.	81
16.	Regionwise and Stagewise Distribution of Basic Schools.	108
17.	Distribution of the Schools According to Management.	109
18.	Aided Schools According to the Type of Management.	110
19.	Schools Having Managing Bodies or Advisory Committees.	111
20.	Schools According to Status of Recognition.	112

		Page
21.	Schools Intended for Different Communities.	112
22.	The Schools Located in Rural and Urban Areas.	113
23.	Basic Schools According to Their Age(As Calculated From the Date of Establishment)	114
24.	Schools According to Their Age as Non-basic Schools.	115
25.	Schools According to Their Age as Basic Schools.	116
26.	Schools According to the Population of the Village in Which They Are Situated.	117
27.	Schools According to the Villages with Different School Going Population.	118
28.	Enrolment and Average Daily Attendance of Student Sex-wise.	119
29.	Scholars According to Community.	120
30.	Boys and Girls Coming From Rural Areas.	121
31.	Average Size of the Class.	121
32.	Pupil Teacher Ratio in Primary and Middle Schools in Andhra Pradesh.	123
33.	Cost of Primary(Basic) Education.	125
34.	Budget for Various Practices of Basic Schools.	126
35.	Wastage and Stagnation in Primary Education.	128
36.	Increase and Decrease of Enrolment.	129
37.	Schools Giving Reasons for All Children in the Place Not Attending the Schools.	135
38.	Measures Taken to Attract More Children to Attend Schools.	137
39.	Schools Having Basic Pattern in Different Grades of Their Schools.	139
40.	Reasons for Not Introducing Basic Pattern in All Grades of the Schools.	140

		Page
41.	Reasons for Not Getting Suitable School Buildings.	152
42.	Nature of the School Buildings.	153
43.	Status of Buildings(1)	154
44.	Status of Buildings(2).	155
45.	Number of Rooms in the School Buildings.	155
46.	Location of School Buildings	156
47.	Schools Providing Sanitary Facilities.	157
48.	Types of Sanitary Facilities Available.	157
49.	Schools Having Play Ground.	158
50.	Schools Having Garden.	159
51.	Average Land Available for Various Activities in Basic School.	159
52.	Facilities for Conducting Basic Education Programmes	160
53.	Agencies Responsible for Additions and Alterations Effected in the School Buildings After Their Conversion.	162
54.	Schools Reporting Admission Examinations for Basic School Leavers.	170
55.	Manner of Deciding School Programmes.	172
56.	Pattern of Teaching Followed by Schools.	178
57.	School Libraries.	184
58.	Subjectwise Classification of Volumes on an Average per School.	185
59.	Pattern of Collateral Reading in Schools.	186
60.	Types of Books Read by the Students.	187
61.	Pattern of Notes Made by Students from Reading of Library Books.	189
62.	Ideal Calender for Basic Schools.	194

		Page
63.	Pay Scales of Teacher.	198
63(a)	Average Size of Teaching Staff Per School.	205
64.	Qualifications of Senior Basic School Teachers.	208
65.	Other Qualifications of Teachers.	211
66.	Reasons for Non-Receipt of Salaries in Time.	214
67.	Reasons for Non-Cooperation of Teachers.	216
68.	Schools in Which Teachers Maintain Records.	217
69.	Teachers Contribution to Basic Education.	219
70.	Position of Language Teaching in Senior Basic Schools.	232
71.	Schools Having Copies of Syllabus.	235
72.	Subjects and Time Devoted.	236
73.	Suggestions for Making Curriculum More Useful.	248
74.	Characteristics of Text Books and Guide Books for Basic Schools.	253
75.	Schools Using the Guide Books and Text Books.	253
76.	Methods and Techniques Adopted in Basic Schools.	261
77.	Types of Correlated Teaching Adopted.	269
78.	Programmes Adopted for Correlated Teaching.	270
79.	Obstructions for Realisation of Core Curriculum.	275
80.	Difficulties in the Way of Correlated Teaching.	277
81.	Suggestions for Removing the Difficulties in the Way of Correlated Reaching.	280
82.	Objectives of Teaching Crafts in Basic Schools.	286
83.	Criteria for Selection of Basic Crafts.	288
84.	Students Considerations for the Choice of Basic Crafts.	290

		Page
85.	Number of Schools Introducing Different Main crafts.	293
86.	Scholars Pursuing Different Crafts.	298
87.	Time Devoted to Major and Minor Crafts.	300
88.	Opinion of Schools About the Grade From Wchich Craft Work Should Be Started.	303
89.	Suggestions for Proper Supply of Craft Equipment.	306
90.	Who Craft Equipment Was Repaired.	308
91.	Suggestions of the Schools for the Disposal of the Craft Products.	310
92.	Nature of Self-Sufficiency Aimed.	313
93.	Productive Crafts Introduced in the Basic Schools Which Responded to the Question on Productivity.	317
94.	Regionwise Balance Sheet of Productivity of Basic Crafts.	318
95.	Regionwise Per School Averages of Productivity of Basic Crafts.	320
96(a)	Reasons for Unsuccessful Craft Work.	326
96.	Suggestions for Making Craft Programme Successful and to Attain Self-Sufficiency.	328
97.	Patterns of Student Self-Government.	336
98.	Departments of Student Self-Government.	338
98(a).	Community Activities Conducted in Basic Schools.	340
99.	Qualities Developed in the Students as a Result of Organising the Community Activities.	344
100.	Drawbacks of the Community.	349
101.	Factors Responsible for the Negative Attitude of the Local Community for School Community Programmes.	357
102.	Reasons for Lack of Public Patronage for Basic Education.	364

		Page
103.	Measures Taken By Schools to Popularise Basic Education in the State.	371
104.	Suggested Measures of Propaganda.	372
105.	Factors Considered for Promotions of Students.	383
106.	Records Maintained by Students.	384
107.	Periodicity of Examinations Conducted.	385
108.	Agency Conducting the Annual Examination.	386
109.	Different Types Educational Officers who responded to Questionnaire.	393
110.	Qualifications of Educational Officers.	395
111.	Training in Basic Education.	395
112.	Background Experience of Educational Officers.	396
113.	Number of Times, Visits to Schools by Educational Officers in an Year.	398
114.	Percentage of Schools Visited by the Different Types of Officers, the Purpose and frequency of Visits.	399
115.	Index of Success of Educational Officers in Implementing different Areas of Basic Education.	419
116.	Recognized Basic Training Schools as on 31st March 1962.	425
117.	Adequacy of Basic Teacher Education.	444
118.	Daily Routine of a Basic Training School.	457
119.	Time Spent by Teacher Educators on Various Activities.	462
120.	Records Maintained by Teacher Educators.	466
121.	Records Maintained by Student-Teachers.	467
122.	Suggestions for Conducting Research.	480
123.	Needed Research in Basic Education.	482