

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to my guide Dr. Daulatbhai B. Desai, Professor of Education, Faculty of Education and Psychology, M.S. University Baroda. For me his learned guidance always had a blend of personal touch.

I am grateful to Dr. M.B. Buch, Professor and Head, Centre of Advanced Study in Education, M.S. University Baroda, who, through a series of national seminars, introduced me to an important area of educational research. At the Centre I am also thankful to Dr. B.K. Passi and Mr. D.N. Sansanwal for some valuable suggestions.

My friends A.C. Pachaury, B.S. Raizada, V.P. Aggarwal, P.S. Yadav and Y. Shah extended valuable help. I am greatly indebted to them.

To be subjected to experimentation means inconvenience. I am extremely thankful to the teachers who willingly preferred to suffer this inconvenience. My thanks are also due to the students and heads of the institutions for their kind co-operation.
