

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Many people have helped and encouraged me while working and during the preparation of this manuscript. I would like to quote the part they played and to couch my gratitude for generous gifts of their time and talents.

With a deep sense of gratitude, I express my indebtedness to my guide, Dr. R. Balaraman, Professor of Pharmacy, Pharmacy Department, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, The M. S. University of Baroda, for his altruistic nature in perception and dispensing of scientific knowledge that made me take up this task. His invaluable guidance, kind co-operation, immense patience, constant motivation, timely criticism encouraged me through out the course of this study.

My sincere thanks are also due to Dr. S. H. Mishra, Professor and Head, Pharmacy Department, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, M. S. University of Baroda for providing me with the necessary facilities.

It gives me immense pleasure to express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. R. S. R. Murthy, Professor, Pharmacy Department for providing with me the facility of histopathological photography.

No words can express my gratefulness to Dr. (Mrs.) Krutika K. Sawant, Reader, Pharmacy Department for her thoughtful, perceptive comments and critical assessment at each juncture, which has given my work a sense of coherence and continuity.

I am thankful to Dr. (Miss) S. D. Telang, Professor, Biochemistry Department, M. S. University of Baroda for her help and critical discussion. My sincere thanks are due to Dr. (Mrs.) A. A. Mehta, Assistant Professor, Biochemistry Department, Medical College Baroda, for setting up the methods that have enabled this work to reach this particular juncture. I sincerely thank Dr. Ravindra Pasale, Baroda Clinical Laboratory, Baroda and Dr. M. V. Asnani, Professor, Zoology Department, M. S. University of Baroda for their great help in examination and interpretation of histological slides.

It is of course impossible to carry out research without a lot of help and co-operation from colleagues. I take this opportunity to acknowledge the support and encouragement of my dear friends Mr. Ashwin B. Rao, Dr. (Mrs.) Vandana B. Patel, Dr. (Miss) Anandkumari Prabhakar, Mr. Mayank R. Joshi and Mr. S. Ganesh.

I express my heartfelt sense of indebtedness to Mr. Avinash K. Seth, not only for his timely suggestions during the preparation of this manuscript but also for helping me to build up myself.

To give it a great focus and importance, I have reserved for the last what normally should have been the first in my context. I believe that the blessings and touching advice of my beloved Parents made this work fruitful. I am also grateful to my brother Prasad, for his encouragement and support.

I am indebted to my Parents-in-laws who made sure that my work never suffered in any way due to family reasons moreover their blessings and encouragement helped me a lot during the study. I am grateful to my brother-in-law, Pankaj, for providing me with the initial computer facility and support.

This work would not have been possible without the patience and love shown by my family, especially my wife Bharti, without whose help, touching advice and care, this work would not have been possible. My son Tejas needs special mention for bearing with me and for his immense patience to make my work run smoothly. A word of love to my daughter Shivani, for patiently tolerating my days of preparation of this manuscript.

Above all, I thank God for giving me the strength, perseverance and opportunity to carry out this work to the best of my ability.
