

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Words have never expressed human sentiments but they are influential means to do so, any accomplishment requires the effort of many people and this work is not excluded. I will always be grateful to my Lord Shivji for enabling me to do whatever I could in all these years towards completion of this work.

The present work was carried out at Pharmacy Department, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, during the years 2006-2008. In Oct 2007, I also had opportunity to do part of my research project at King's College of London, UK, for five months.

My warmest thanks belong to my esteemed guide Dr. Rajashree C. Mashru, Reader, Pharmacy Department, for her invaluable guidance, expert suggestions, immense patience and kindness to guide and supervise my work through out the course. She has been a constant source of inspiring guidance, friendly attitude, thought provoking ideas, and this dissertation is a result of her rational and meaningful thinking.

I am greatly indebted to Dr. Ben Forbes, Head, Drug Delivery Group, Pharmaceutical Science Division, King's College of London, London, UK, for the generous help and providing the facilities and funding to carry out cell line studies of my research project.

I am thankful to Mr J J Chaudhari, Operations Head, Gujarat Liqui Pharma Pvt. Ltd., for kind help and providing facilities to carry out HPLC analysis.

I wish my sincere thanks to Dr. R Balraman, Professor and Head of the Pharmacy Department, for extending all the facilities during the present study.

Financial support from The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda in terms of University Research Fellowship is gratefully acknowledged.

I wish my sincere thanks to Prof. S. J. Rajput, Prof. M. R. Yadav, Prof. R. S. R. Murthy, Prof. A. N. Misra, Prof. S.H. Mishra, Prof. K. K. Sawant, for their valuable support during the research work.

I would like to place on my record, my special thanks to Dr. Yogesh Rane, Dr (Mrs.) Jolly Sankalia, Dr. Mayur Sankalia and Miss Swetal Shah for their generous help, co-operation and keen interest in work.

For the really good working atmosphere and for the collegiality, my special gratitude goes to Bishram Chauhan, Punit Shah, Atul Badhan, Pallavi Rai, Samir Patel, Nagraj Sir, Nitin Dobarra, Ashutosh Pathak and Advait Dixit. I would like to thank Hiral Dave, Pragnesh, Kiranj, and all my co-workers in Pharmacy Department who have helped me in some way other in the fulfilment of this work.

A note of this kind cannot end without a word of appreciation and thankfulness to my friends Azaz Kalkattavala, Kamini & Nilesh Marvadi, Bhagirath Patel, and Riya & Rahul Bhatia for their pleasant company and affection during work.

Adequate words are not found to express my gratitude for the love and gesture of true friendship by Miss Foram Vakani and Mr Anam Ghai. Their cheerful company and many helpful discussions have given me encouragement during the work.

Above all, my most especial thanks to my beloved Father & adored Mother for their motivation and enormous patience they put forth during my study. A moral support and constant inspiration can't be forgettable by my Late Grandpa, Grandma, my siblings Bhagyesh (Monti), Bina, Nilam, Kalpesh Jiju, Jigar Jiju and their small wonders Devanshi, Jinil, Dhruv and Jay.

A special note of attention to my younger brother Ketan who's constant brainwave and love encouraged me in completing my research work successfully.

Finally it is inevitable in this project, that omissions, occasional errors and lapses in the accuracy of interpretations might have escaped detection. I hope that any mistakes are minor and minimum and I accept the full and exclusive responsibility for them.
