

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Filled with deep sense of reverence and gratitude, I take this opportunity to express my indebtedness to my esteemed guide Prof. S.K. Banerjee for his invaluable guidance, timely advice, kind co-operation, constructive criticism, constant inspiration through the course of this work.

I gratefully express my sincere thanks to Prof. R.S.R. Murthy, Head, Pharmacy Department, M.S. University of Baroda for providing me the necessary facilities for my work and all other staff members for their kind co-operation and helpful suggestions.

I owe a lot to Prof. N.S. Parmar former Principal of A.R. College of Pharmacy, V.V. Nagar for his kind and ready co-operation and incessant encouragement. I also thank Prof. S.S. Pandya, Principal, A.R. College of Pharmacy, V.V. Nagar and all other staff members of A.R. college of Pharmacy for their help and co-operation in this work.

I am grateful to Dr. A.N. Mishra Director, R and D of G.A.C.I. because of whose permission the analysis using high pressure liquid chromatography could be conducted. Their gift of high purity solvents is also acknowledged with thanks.

I must acknowledge with sincere thanks the help rendered by M/s. Ranbaxy Laboratories, New Delhi and M/s. Cadila Laboratories, Ahmedabad by providing the pure samples of drugs.

Among other well wishers I owe a lot to Mrs. Krutika Sawant for her friendly co-operation, boundless enthusiasm and most devoted help. I hardly have to thank my mother and sisters for their extra ordinary moral support so characteristic of them.

Last, but certainly not the least I wish to thank and remember all others everywhere who helped me in oneway or the other in fulfilment of this research project.

I must include my special thanks to Dr. (Mrs) G.Banerjee, Lecturer in Pharmacognosy, Department of Pharmacy for her unfailing encouragement and moral support throughout the course of this work.

Lastly I thank Mr. G.S. Pillai, Prashant Rao and Kiran Soni for their neat and efficient computer printing.
