

Acknowledgement

I do not have words to express my feelings at this moment but surely it is the moment of gratification and ecstasy to look back with a sense of contentment at the long traveled path, to recapture some of the fine moments and thank infinite numbers of people, some who were with me from the beginning and some who joined at some stage during the journey, whose support, love and blessings has brought this day. I wish to thank each one of them with all my warmth.

Firstly and most essentially, I thank my constant companion, strong source of inspiration and my ultimate guardian 'The GOD' for giving me this great opportunity at such a great institution. They say not a leaf can shake without HIS will. So I bow my head in front of the Omniscient and Omnipresent and humbly seek THY goodwill. It is because of HIS blessings and ultimate support I am at this stage.

Words seem insufficient to express profoundest gratitude to my esteemed guide Dr. (Ms.) Rajashree C. Mashru, who gave me this opportunity to attain one of the highest levels of educational qualification. Her erudite suggestions, explicit directions, serendipitous observations, questioning thoughts, precious discussions and constructive criticism always opened up a new way when I was at roadblocks during my research work. Her discipline, principles, simplicity, profound knowledge and the subject understanding constantly kept me motivated. It is my greatest privilege to work under her able, untiring and dynamic supervision. I am immensely grateful for all the guidance she has provided me so far, academically as well as personally.

I would like to verbalize my deep sense of reverence to Prof. M.R. Yadav, Head and Dean, Faculty of Pharmacy, The M.S. University of Baroda and coordinators of G.H. Patel Pharmacy building: Shri S.P. Rathod, Prof. K.K. Sawant and Prof. S.J. Rajput for availing infrastructure and facilities to complete my work. I profoundly convey my gratitude to Prof. A.N. Misra, Former Dean, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, The M.S. University of Baroda, for providing excellent facilities and support to Pharmacy Department before it has been established as Faculty. I would like to extend my appreciation to respected faculty members: Late Prof. Rajani Giridhar, Mr. Bhavik Chauhan, Dr. Prashant Murumkar, Mr. Navneet Prajapati, Dr. P.A. Nagar, Dr. H.P. Thakkar, Dr. K.V. Patel and Ms. H.T. Tandel for their help and moral support.

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to University Grant Commission (BSR Division), Government of India, New Delhi for providing financial assistance in terms of research fellowship during my PhD tenure.

No words can justify the friendship of Alpesh Patel whose incessant support crosses over a decade. I am truly indebted to his precious suggestions and untiring assistance extended at countless occasions throughout the PhD. I am immensely thankful to my dear dost, Dr. Chintan Vora for always being there and bearing with me at good and bad times during wonderful days of PhD. The discussions, suggestions and critiques made by him substantially helped me to improve my work. His persistent support will always be remembered. I wish to express my heartiest thanks to Rakshit Patel for his remarkable support and constant encouragement in addition to helping me out in analytical problems. I am enormously thankful to dear Karan for his persistent help and his valued suggestions in encountering IT problems and analytical method development. I am heartiest thankful to Mohit Mahajan who is more a good friend than a colleague. He will always be remembered as a humble person helping out everyone in the department. Mr. Mayank Sharma is like a mate who continuously motivated me and provided moral support throughout the PhD. Apart from sharing a wall between our rooms; we also shared our breakfast and dinner almost daily. How can I forget the hostel gang especially Imran Vhora, Sushil Patil, Jitendra Amrutiya and Mahesh Barmade (and Mayank Sharma too)! They have shared my happiness, fun and sorrows altogether. The food, teas, pans and sodas with them were the real stress-busters. The moments shared with them can't be put in words. My personal and sincere appreciation goes to my dear friend Jatin Macchi especially for helping me out in conducting pharmacological studies in addition to constant motivation and moral support.

My deep and heartfelt thanks to my buddies Kashyap, Kishuman, Sachin, Kalarav, Divyesh, Rushi, Jimmy, Dharmendra and Rakesh who always encouraged and supported me during this journey. I further extend my appreciation to my old-pals Niles, Devarsh, Jigar and Sunil who intentionally or unintentionally provided relief from my work-related stress.

I deeply extend my gratitude to my dear lab-friends Mr. Abhishek Pathak, Dr. Reshma Jain, Ms. Prachi Bhamre, Mrs. Madhuri Baghel, Mrs. Charu Pandya and Ms. Priya Shah for their support in one or the other way. I would always remember the lunch time and birthday celebrations made with them.

I also acknowledge my colleagues Mrs. Priyanka Bhatt, Mr. Manit Gandhi, Mr. Rohan Lalani, Dr. Girish Kore, Dr. Hardik Ghandhi, Dr. Abhinesh Kumar, Mr. Ravi Gandhi, Mr. Rahul Dhande, Mr. Hardik Savsani, Mr. Nirav Patel, Mr. Nitesh Agrawal, Mr. Mahesh Shidore, Mr. Atul Khadse, Mr. Dushyant Patel, Mr. Sagar Patel, Mr. Praveen Srivastava, Dr. Dipesh Bardiya, Dr. Atul Kofte, Dr. Chetan Yewle, Mrs. Hinal Patel, Ms. Arpita Patel, Ms. Prachi Karia, Ms. Mitali Patel, Ms. Kinjal Parikh, Dr. Kailash Petkar, Mr. Piyush Mundada, Mr. Brahmanand Dube, Mr. Ashish Kanned and Mr. Abhijeet Pandey for all their personal or professional help that they have extended to me throughout. I would always remember the Chai per Charcha and fun time spent with them.

I would also express my heartfelt thanks to my juniors Bharat, Bhumi, Gevriya, Darshan, Satish, and Varyya with whom I shared lots of happy moments. I thank Mr. Kankan Sharma and Mr. Pinkal Chaudhari, my neighbours at the hostel.

I am very thankful to Vaishaliben, Heenaben, Chandrakantbhai and Hasumatiben for their kind support in official paper work since the very beginning of my work. I also acknowledge the support provided by Pragneshbhai, Naginbhai, Jagdishbhai, Pramodbhai and Pravinbhai in relation to any lab-work.

I am highly grateful to Piramal Healthcare Pvt. Ltd., Ahmedabad, Unimedia Pharmaceuticals Pvt. Ltd. Ahmedabad, Welable Pharmaceuticals, Mehsana, Signet chemical Corp., Mumbai, Ashland Inc., Mumbai, Evonik Ind., Mumbai, and Gattefosse, Mumbai for providing gift samples of drugs and excipients.

I am very thankful to Metallurgical and Materials Engineering Department, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, The M.S. University of Baroda, Vadodara for providing skillful assistance in SEM and PXRD studies. I am also grateful to Dr. Vikram Sarabhai Science Center, Faculty of Science, The M.S. University of Baroda, Vadodara for availing facility and skillful assistance in carrying out LC-MS analysis. I am also thankful to Electrical Research and Development Association, Vadodara for extending help in conducting SEM analysis.

At this moment, I must acknowledge the love, blessings and trust expressed by my late grandpa and grandma who are not physically present now but their teachings and blessings always encourage me in every stage of life in achieving my goals and becoming a human being. I am wordless and can't express my feelings for the unconditional support, love, boundless faith and blessings that I got from my mom, dad and sister without which even a fraction of this work would be impossible. I would always remember the sacrifices made by them for achieving my goals.

Lastly, I would like to thank all the people who provided even a smallest help for the successful realization of this thesis as well as expressing apology if I might have missed to mention any of one inadvertently.
