

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take the opportunity to express my profound sense of gratitude to my guide, Dr.B.K.Passi, Professor and Head, Department of Education, University of Indore, who has been the main prop throughout the study. Without his precious guidance and valuable suggestions this study would not have been possible.

I am also grateful to Professor A.S.Patel, Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, Professor D.M.Desai, Head, Department of Educational Administration and Professor M.B. Buch, Ex-Head, Centre of Advanced Study in Education for their inspiration and help to me.

I am specially thankful to the teachers and students of the schools in Baroda City (India) and those in Bangkok City (Thailand), whose willing co-operation helped me in the collection of data.

I express my sincere thanks to Mrs. Bimla Passi, who was always in touch with my progress and gave me valuable suggestions whenever needed. I also owe a deep debt of gratitude to P.M.Vichaya Muangsri, P.M. Chirasakdi Chinda, P.M.Kruan Kunadisom, P.M.Anan Pacchimsiri, Mr. Cham Thongboonchoo, and Mr.Somchai Srimal who helped me a lot during my study and gave me a good sort of encouragement to complete this study. P.M.Rengchai Muenchana, Mr.Hans Raj Pal and Mr.Satender Kumar are also the deservers of my thankfulness for their timely helps.

Here I have great pleasure in mentioning the name of my mother Mrs.Ounjit Govatana whose zeal and love for education inspired me throughout my educational life.

Last of all I am debted to my friends and acquaintances who have helped directly or indirectly in my work.

With these words, I put my labour before the world of education, prehaps it may get benefit by this venture.
