

APPENDIX (X)*LETTER OF REACTION FROM TEACHERS

From,
BaskirBhai K. Malik
(M.A, M.Ed, PDEM)
Senior English Teacher in Zenith High Secondary School, Baroda.

I BashirBhai K Malik of Zenith Higher Secondary School, Baroda have gone through the Package prepared and administered by Mr. Munther Mohammed Zyoud for his Ph.D research work. He was coming regularly to school to administer the Package to the students of VIII standard. I found that the Package was well presented to the students. The Package included the following important aspects:-

Adequacy: The Package was found to be adequate for the purpose of teaching the four lessons chosen for the research purpose. The students took keen interest during the teaching of the four lessons selected by the researcher.

Logical Sequence: The Package was properly linked. The Package was divided into four divisions, Viz., (i) Vocabulary, (ii) Grammar, (iii) Comprehension, and (iv) Evaluation tests. I observed that each division was presented in a sequential way in which the pupils got interest. The Vocabulary division was presented along with a matching graphics for each Vocabulary item. The researcher gave the different meanings of the different words in a simple, lucid and interesting way.

The Use of English Language: The Language of the researcher was apt. It was upto the level of the students. The students co-operated the researcher during the teaching-learning process. The researcher gave the students the different meanings of the different words. The students could follow the oral and Computerized teaching of the researcher.

To sum up, I would like to say that the Package Administered by Munther is suitable to the students of VIII standard of Zenith High school, Baroda. This Package encouraged the students to learn the four lessons selected by the researcher. I wish that the students of VIII standard of other schools of Gujarat State should be shown what this Package deal with, so that they can also get the benefit of this novel teaching by computers. I wish him every success of his research work.

I Asgar M. Vohra of Zenith Secondary School have gone through the Package prepared by Mr. Munther Moh'd Zyoud for his Ph.D research. While administering the Package I found that the Package was well presented considering the following aspects.

Logical continuity: Mr. Munther came to school to deliver his Package for the students of Std.VIII. His Package was divided into two sections (i) Vocabulary section and (ii) Grammar section. The Vocabulary and Grammar sections were based on the four lessons of Std.VIII. Mr. Munther taught the Vocabulary and Grammar in a logical manner.

Adequacy: The students got interest in the Package of Mr. Munther. The Package was divided into theory and Practical sections. The students welcomed this novel experience of teaching through computer. The students were acquainted with the new skill of learning.

The use of English Language: The language used by the researcher was upto the level of the students of Std.VIII. The language was very simple and the students could follow it. The researcher explained the four lessons to the students in such a simple way that they could follow it thoroughly.

In the end I wish him every success. This Package can be used by the teachers of other schools of Baroda city and Gujarat.
