

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to all those who have been an integral part of my PhD journey. Your support, encouragement, and presence have made a profound impact on my academic pursuit and personal growth. Firstly, I offer my heartfelt gratitude to God for the blessings and guidance bestowed upon me throughout my journey. The blessings received, both seen and unseen, have illuminated my path and enriched my life in countless ways.

Next, I extend my sincerest gratitude to my mentor and guide Prof. Rajesh Singh for his invaluable guidance, unwavering support, and the provision of essential facilities that facilitated our research endeavours. His guidance not only shaped my understanding but also fostered an environment where creativity and critical thinking flourished. The freedom he granted us to work and think independently has been a driving force behind our success, encouraging us to push the boundaries of our research. His vision and commitment to facilitating a comfortable and well-equipped working environment greatly contributed to our productivity and the quality of our research output.

I am profoundly grateful to my beloved parents for their unconditional love throughout my academic journey. Your sacrifices and relentless support, both emotionally and morally, have shaped me into the person I am today. I am deeply indebted to both of you for instilling in me the values of hard work, perseverance, and resilience. Thank you, Mom and Dad, for being my pillars of strength.

I extend my deepest appreciation to my mentor-turned-life partner, Dr. Milton, for his unwavering love, support, and guidance that has enriched both my personal and professional life in immeasurable ways. Your unwavering support during challenging times, your belief in my capabilities, and your encouragement to strive for excellence have been the cornerstones of our relationship. The seamless blend of professional guidance and personal understanding has been a constant source of strength and inspiration. Thank you, Milton, for being a loving life partner.

I express my heartfelt thanks to the Head of the Department, Prof. C. Ratna Prabha, other faculty members, Dr. Laxmi Nampoothiri, Prof. Pushpa Robin, Dr. Sashikant Acharya, Dr. Jayshree Pohnerkar, Dr. Devesh Suthar, Dr. Sanjeev Upadhyay and senior faculty members, Prof. Sarita Gupta, Prof. G Naresh Kumar and Prof. Rasheedunnisa Begum for sharing their knowledge and guidance that have not only enriched my educational journey but also broadened my perspective in profound ways. I would like to thank my Departmental Research Committee (DRC) - Dr. Ravi Vijayvargia, and Dr. Ratika Srivastava for their guidance and constructive criticism that been immensely beneficial in shaping my work and refining its quality. I express my sincere gratitude to the non-teaching staff of the Biochemistry Department for their assistance, guidance and their continuous efforts in making our department a place of productivity and growth.

I want to take a moment to express my heartfelt gratitude to Prof. Eugene for the warm welcome extended to me at Seoul National University, South Korea. Your expertise, dedication, and collaborative spirit have significantly enriched our project.

I want to express my deepest gratitude to Prof. David at University of Alberta, Canada for the immense support and the homely atmosphere you cultivated during my OVDF journey. I am sincerely thankful for the opportunities you provided me with to learn and explore further within the realm of breast cancer biology. Your encouragement to delve deeper into various aspects of our work has expanded my horizons and has been pivotal in my academic and scientific growth. I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Xiaoyun for your invaluable help. Your support and assistance have been incredibly valuable to me, and I truly appreciate the time and effort you've dedicated to helping me with my work.

I would like to thank my closest friends Fatema and Jyoti for your incredible friendship and understanding. Your willingness to bear with my single-lined songs on repeat and spontaneous coffee times have meant the world to me. Our moments together, whether filled with laughter, shared thoughts, or just comfortable silences, have been some of the most cherished times of my life. I would like to thank my amazing lab mates Dr. Kritarth, Dr. Dhruv, Shatakshi, Shani, Nisha, Minal, Saranga, Dr. Hitesh and Dr. Bhoomika. and all the dissertation students for your presence that has made our lab feel like a second home, a place where we not only work hard but also create lasting bonds and memories. I thank Shivani and Sandeep, having you as a next-door companion and friends has been a source of immense joy and comfort.

I would like to thank my friend Pankti for being there for me through all the ups and downs. Your friendship is a treasure I deeply value, and I'm grateful to have you as such an amazing and supportive friend.

As I reflect on my time in Canada, I am overwhelmed with gratitude for the incredible friendship and would like to thank my buddies Arvind and Pramod, for making Canada feel like home.

I express my deepest gratitude to the ICMR, Govt. of India and SERB, Govt. of India for the invaluable fellowship support provided during my PhD studies. The financial assistance and recognition offered have been instrumental in facilitating and advancing my research work. The financial aid has alleviated a significant burden, allowing me to focus more intensely on my studies and research endeavors.

Lastly, I wanted to extend my deepest gratitude to each one of you who has played a part, directly or indirectly, in supporting me along this path. Thank you once again for being part of this incredible journey and for your invaluable contributions.
