

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At this moment of accomplishment of my thesis, there are not enough words to express my gratitude to my thesis supervisor, Prof. Nand Lal Singh, Physics Department, Faculty of Science, The M.S. University of Baroda for his extraordinary support, guidance and suggestions. I especially thank him for the freedom that he has given me to do research and for always encouraging me whenever I lost my confidence during personal circumstances.

I express my sincere gratitude to my co-supervisor Dr. P. V. Subhash, ITER-India for his supportive and friendly nature. I would like to thank, The M.S. University of Baroda (where I studied) and IPR, Gandhinagar (where I work) for providing an excellent environment to pursue my research work. I am also thankful to Dr. B. Sarakar, Dr. Dhiraj Bora, Dr. Sudip Sen Gupta and members of the Academic Committee at IPR for allowing me to register myself at The M.S. University of Baroda for Ph.D. degree.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. S. S. Khirwadkar Division Head, IPR; for his support and for giving me the freedom to pursue my research work with my routine work. I also convey my thanks with equal respect to Kedar Bhope for his extraordinary support and motivation to work hard and focus on my research work. I thank Tushar Patel, Nikunj Patel, Prakash Mokaria, and Mitul Abhangi at IPR for their support and for being true friends to motivate me in some difficult circumstances. I am also thankful to other division members of IPR for their support.

I am also thankful to the research group of my colleagues and friends at The M.S. University of Baroda- Prof. S. Mukherji, Dr. Rajnikant Makwana, Mr. Rakesh Chauhan, Mr. RatanKumar Singh, Dr. Siddharth Parashari, Mr. Bhargav Soni, Mrs. Vibhuti Vashi, Mr. Vishal Unagar, Dr. Jaimin Acharya, Dr. Gyansagar Patel, Naresh for their sincere help and support in the experimental work and discussions. All group members are highly supportive and motivated during the research work. Special thanks to Rajnikant Makwana for being a true friend and for his constant support in completing my research work. I thank Ratan Kumar Singh and Siddharth Parashari for their help in data analysis. I would also like to thank the staff members of the Department of Physics, Faculty of Science; The M.S. University of Baroda for their help and support in my work.
