

Acknowledgement

The work presented in this thesis wouldn't have been possible without the immense support of many people who have helped me when I needed them the most. I take this opportunity to acknowledge them and extend my sincere gratitude to them.

First and foremost, I would like to praise and thank God, the almighty, who has granted countless blessings, knowledge, and opportunity to the writer, so that I have been finally able to accomplish the thesis.

I would like to express my deepest gratitude towards my research guide Dr. Aadhar A. Mandot, Textile Engineering Department, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, for his excellent guidance, caring patience, and encouragement with an outstanding atmosphere throughout the study. Despite many hurdles and ambiguous results, he never stopped believing in me. The freedom provided by him and his supportive nature always kept me motivated and was essential for the realization of this research work. I am always delightfully thankful to him.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. Satyajeet B. Chaudhari, Head of Textile Engineering Department, for his consistent support in extending facilities during the entire research work. I also express my deepest gratitude to Prof. (Dr.) Dhanesh Patel, Dean, Faculty of Technology & Engineering for their support through the research journey.

I would also like to thank Departmental Research Committee members, Dr. Ketan Vadodaria, Dr. Hireni Mankodi, and Dr. Pragnya Kanade for their constant encouragement, constructive criticism, and support throughout my research work.

My deepest gratitude is also to Dr. D. R. Panchal and Mr. Sanket Darji, Department of Applied Mechanics, from MSU Baroda, without their knowledge and continued assistance this study would not have been successful. I am also thankful to Dr. M. V. Shah and Dr. Bansal Patel, from L.D.C.E. Ahmedabad for their constant support and testing assistance.

I extend my sincere gratitude to Dr. Jaita Sharma, Ms. Drashti Rana & Ms. Sejal Patel for their invaluable support in developing a mathematical model for the prediction of the tensile behavior of braided rope and rods.

I am also thankful to Laboratory staff Shri Prakash Jawle, Shri Sudhir Firke, and Shri Amrish Kachiya, Shri Bhupendra Rajput, Shri Gamji Rathwa from the Textile Engineering Department for valuable assistance in the research work. Also, my special thanks go to the friendly and cooperative technical staff of Textile Engineering Department.

I am greatly thankful to Principal, L.D. College of Engineering, and Dr. Dharmendra V. Bihola, Head Textile Technology Department, L. D. College of Engineering for their help and coordination. I am also thankful to my colleagues from L.D. College of Engg.

I am thankful to Mr. Sanjay B. Bambhaniya for his help and coordination during this entire journey and will always remember the support and time given by him.

I am also thankful to Dr. M.V. Koranne, without his support this work could not have even started. He also helped and provided moral support as and when required.

I would especially like to acknowledge and thank wholeheartedly Mr. Manish Sharma- Geosynthetics Pvt Ltd [NABL Approved Lab] for providing testing services.

I wholeheartedly express my deepest gratitude to my parents, Shri Jitendra Kumar and Shrimati Nalini Ben, my brother Ankit, and my sister-in-law Vaishali for their unwavering support and encouragement through all the joys and challenges of my life. Without their steadfast backing, I would not have been able to complete my studies. I owe you everything. We do have four wonderful children: Vansh, Namya, Shubh, and Harshvi of mine and elder brother. Despite the demands of my family life and the precious time I cherish with them outside of office hours, I have managed to dedicate the necessary time to this research work. My entire family's love and patience have been instrumental in my journey. Above all I would like to thank my wife Priyanka for her love and constant support, for all the late nights and early mornings, and for keeping me sane over the past few months. Without your tremendous understanding and encouragement over the past few years, it would be impossible for me to complete my study. But most of all, thank you for being my best friend.

Finally, I express my sincere thanks to all those who supported me during the completion of my research work.
