

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my deep sense of appreciation and gratitude to my guide, Dr. S. K. Dutta, Retd. Prof. and Ex. Head, Metallurgical and Materials Engineering Department, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, The M. S. University of Baroda for his invaluable guidance, support, and mentorship throughout my journey Ph.D. His expertise in process metallurgy and his passion for research have inspired me greatly. I am particularly grateful for his willingness to share his knowledge and experience, and for his patience and understanding. He has been a constant source of encouragement, and I am indebted to him for helping me to achieve my goals.

I would also like to thank the Dr. B. J. Chauhan, Asso. Prof. and Head, Metallurgical and Materials Engineering Department and Dr. S. N. Soman, Retd. Prof. and Ex. Head for their constant encouragement and support. They have created a positive and supportive research environment.

I take this opportunity to thank my teacher, Late Prof. A. B. Lele for instilling in me a keen interest of process metallurgy and for constantly motivating me. I am indebted to him for keeping me in the field. He was a passionate and dedicated teacher and I am grateful for the impact he had on my career.

I would also like to thank Mr. D. R. Lodhari, Asst. Prof. for being a valuable source of guidance throughout my PhD program. He has always been willing to help me with my research, and I am grateful for his help and support. For their valuable guidance and support in geological aspects and mineralogical studies, I am grateful to Prof. (Dr.) M. A. Limaye and Dr. Aditya Joshi. They have helped me to better understand the mineralogical aspects in my initial phase of research, and I am grateful for their expertise.

I am particularly indebted to Dr. Rameshwar Sah, Dy. Managing Director - R&D, JSW Steel, for his crucial and constant help in my research problem. Mr. Gautam Banerjee, JGM - R&D, ArcelorMittal Nippon Steel India Limited has always been willing to help me understand essential part of my research. I would like to acknowledge the Mr. S. I. Patel, Asst. Prof., Govt. Engg. College, Gandhinagar and Mr. Ravi Bang in procuring raw materials for my research. I am grateful to Dr. U. N. Puntambekar, Dy. Director, ERDA and Prof. (Dr.) P. T. Deota, Applied Chemistry for providing me with access to testing facilities. I express thank to Mr. Nikhilesh Samkuniya, Asst. Manager – Service, Inductotherm Limited for his complete assistance in furnace operations and service maintenance. I would like to express my sincerest gratitude towards Mr. Raju Chauhan for his help to construct a tube furnace.

I express my sincere gratitude to Retd. Prof. M. N. Patel and Dr. V. J. Rao, Asso. Prof. for their invaluable help in SEM and EDS analysis. I would like to thank Dr. B. R. Rehani, Retd. Asso. Prof. for her assistance in XRD analysis. They have shared their expertise with me and helped me to better interpretation of results.

I am indebted to Dr. V. V. Mathane, Retd. Asso. Prof., Dr. S. D. Kahar, and Dr. H. N. Panchal; faculty members of Metallurgical and Materials Engineering Department for their co-operation and shared their knowledge and experience with me and I am grateful for their guidance.

I am grateful to the following laboratory staff for extending their help and support in this project work: Mr. Rajesh Pepavanshi, Mr. Dharmesh Solanki, Mr. Ishwar Baranda, Mr. Rakesh Javle, and Mr. Ramesh Chavan (Retd.). They have always been willing to help me with my experiments and I am grateful for their hard work and dedication.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Dr. B. B. Soneji, Principal, Government Polytechnic Rajkot; Dr. P. P. Kotak, Ex. Principal and Dr. V. N. Kaila, Head, Metallurgy Dept., Government Polytechnic Rajkot for permitting me to pursue my Ph.D. work.

I am grateful to my colleagues, Ms. Neelam Sompura, Mr. Falgun Suthar, Mr. Manish Mehta, and Mr. Jaydeep Desai, Metallurgy Dept., Government Polytechnic Rajkot for their unwavering support and constant encouragement.

Furthermore, I cannot quantify in words the invaluable moral support and encouragement I have received from my dear friends, Dr. Ketan Kothadia, Dr. Ishan Bhavsar, Mr. Anil Chavda, Dr. Arti Bhatti, Mr. Jaideep Mukherjee, Dr. Pramod Chavan and Dr. Mitali Patel, throughout my journey. Thank you for being there for me always.

Last but not the least; I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my parents and sister Riddhi for their unconditional love, support and sacrifices. The good will, inspiration and help extended by many friends and relatives whose names are not included here, were a great asset in completing the work. I am truly grateful to everyone who has helped me to achieve my PhD. I could not have done it without their support.
