

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my heartiest gratitude and sincere thanks to Prof. (Dr.) Madhu Sharan, Former Head of the Department of Clothing and Textiles, Faculty of Family and Community Science, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara, for providing me with valuable guidance and regular suggestions as a supervisor throughout this study. Her support and encouragement helped me in all stages of this study.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Reena Bhatia, I/C Head of the Department of Clothing and Textiles, Faculty of Family and Community Science, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara, for providing me with support and suggestions on this study.

My thanks to the staff members, seniors- Sumi Haldar, Jyoti Navlani, Chhavi Gangwar, Kriti Sharma, Kanika Chaudhary, and juniors of the Department of Clothing and Textiles, Faculty of Family and Community Sciences, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara. My thankfulness to my friends and well-wishers for their help and support at every level of the present study.

I am deeply grateful to the University Grant Commission (UGC) for their unwavering support and generosity throughout my academic journey. Their fellowship has been instrumental in enabling me to pursue my studies with dedication and focus.

I cannot forget to thank Dr. Huidrom Birkumar Singh, Principal Scientist, and the staff members of the North East Institute of Science and Technology Branch in Imphal, Manipur for their help and Willingness Corporation in all possible ways in the extraction of pineapple leaf fibre and for providing the institute facility.

I offer my gratitude towards Soibam Apanbi Devi, a former trainee of the Design Department, DIC, Manipur, Mr Ingujam Binoychandra and Mrs Athokpam Ibetombi of Changangei, Manipur former demonstrator in DIC, Manipur for the valuable information they had provided regarding the pineapple leaf fibre.

I am sincerely grateful to the weavers, Khwairakpam Roma Devi, Phuritsabam Shanti Devi, and Thengujam Anjita Devi for weaving my pineapple fabrics wonderfully. I owe a great deal of acknowledgement to innumerable respondents of the Meitei community for their keen interest in cooperating with me with their valuable responses and feedback regarding this study.

Special thanks to Bakul Shah Sir of Sardarbhavan Trust, Manvi, Vadodara, Gujarat, who helped me in preparing ply yarns with different charkhas. I appreciate Samit sir and Kabir Arora sir, Rossari Biotech Ltd., Dadra and Nagar Haveli, for providing me with enzymes for the treatment of fibre.

With all my heart, I express my deep love and gratitude towards my family- Baba, Mama, Nene, Abok, Apu, Sisters and brothers who were always there by my side at every stage, especially my dad Mr. Thangjam Rajen Singh and my mom Khwairakpam Basanti Devi who supported me and giving me strength in every stage of this work. Thanks to the people of my neighbourhood who always cheered me up on the journey. And thanks to all those unnamed who helped me.

Last but not least, I would like to thank god and the universe for blessing me in the entire journey.

I am wrapping up with the wonderful words of Nelson Mandela, "It always seems impossible until it's done".

Thangjam Roshini