

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my Ph.D. supervisor, Prof. Bindu Bhatt, at the Department of Geography, Faculty of Science, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara. Her unwavering support, invaluable guidance, and insightful feedback have been instrumental to the completion of this thesis. Her encouragement and dedication have profoundly shaped my research journey, and I am sincerely grateful for her mentorship.

I sincerely thank the Indian Meteorological Department (IMD) and the Climate Prediction Center (CPC), NOAA, for providing the essential dataset that formed the backbone of my research. This data enabled in-depth analysis and meaningful findings that advanced this study.

I am also grateful to the University Grants Commission (UGC), New Delhi, for the fellowship provided during my Ph.D. program. Their financial support allowed me to focus entirely on my research without financial constraints.

I would like to extend my appreciation to the DRC Committee, as well as the teaching and non-teaching staff of the Department of Geography, Faculty of Science, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara, for their assistance and encouragement throughout my studies. Their dedication to academic excellence has been a constant source of inspiration.

I am grateful for the support and encouragement from my seniors, Dr. Janak P. Joshi, GIS and RS Specialist at VSCDL; Dr. Shashikant Patel, Scientist SD at PRSC, Ludhiana; and Dr. Nirzar Lakhia, Proprietor at IGRI, Ahmedabad. Their guidance and assistance were pivotal throughout my research. I also extend my thanks to my fellow Ph.D. scholars, Mrs. Sharmistha Bhowmik and Mr. Kandarp Parmar, for their continuous help and motivation during my Ph.D. journey.

I am especially thankful to Dr. Amitanshu Pattanaik, Senior Scientist at DRDO, for his insightful discussions and continuous support. My heartfelt thanks also go to Dr. Ajay Kumar, Secretary General of the MAHE Group of Institutions, Rajasthan, and Dr. Munesh Kumari, Assistant Professor at SPM College, University of Delhi, for their valuable guidance during my undergraduate studies at SSN College, University of Delhi. I am equally indebted to Prof. Taruna Bansal and Prof. Devendra Kumar Dhusia, whose mentorship during my postgraduate studies at Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi, played a crucial role in shaping my academic path.

Lastly, I am profoundly grateful to my family—my father, mother, beloved sisters, and my wife, for their unwavering support, love, and encouragement throughout this journey. Their patience, sacrifices, and belief in me provided the strength and inspiration needed to navigate challenges and remain focused on my goals. They have been my steadfast pillars, offering both emotional support and motivation. Without their unconditional love, I could not have dedicated myself fully to my studies. I owe my deepest gratitude to my family for their invaluable contributions, without which this thesis would not have been possible.
