

Acknowledgement

I am incredibly grateful for this opportunity to express my gratitude to all those who helped me and supported me throughout the course of this research work.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Dharmendra Sharma for their invaluable advice, continuous support and for generously sharing his extensive academic knowledge. I am truly thankful for his firm yet compassionated guidance that has not only shaped me as a researcher but also as an individual. Our discussions on many technical/ non-technical issues open new doors of wisdom and knowledge for me. He has always considered me as his extended family and helped in all the way he can for my bright future.

I convey my sincere thanks to Dr. Piyush Gohil, Head, Department of Mechanical Engineering. His continuous support helped me in balancing my professional work alongwith research. I also like to express my acknowledgment to Prof. Dhanesh Patel, Dean of Faculty of Technology and Engineering for all kind of support.

I would like to thank to my PhD colleague Ms. Sonal Bhojani. Many times, she helped in solving errors in programming and simulations. She has not only shared technical knowledge, but also helped emotionally. I would like extend my thanks to Mr. Kapil Mandloi for his encouraging and helping nature all time.

I want to express my deepest gratitude to my mother Mrs. Jashi Solanki and father Mr. Tribhovanbhai Solanki for their support and belief in me. They have been a source of strength and motivation to me. I could not end my acknowledgement without mentioning name of my wife Roshni and my son Vaahin. Their love for me strengthens my courage.

Last but not the least, I would like to all my colleagues and friends for their direct or indirect support and help in my PhD journey.

-Dhaval T Solanki
