

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would acknowledge my sincere appreciation to the Department of Education (CASE), Faculty of Education & Psychology, at The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara, Gujarat, India, for their generosity in allowing me to conduct my research. This work would not have been possible without the support of many individuals. First and foremost, I am deeply indebted to my research guide, Prof. Sujata Srivastava, Professor in the Department of Education (CASE), Faculty of Education & Psychology at The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara. I am profoundly grateful for her encouragement, wise counsel, and unwavering support. Her vast knowledge and extensive experience have been a driving force in both my research and academic journey. I have greatly benefited from her expertise and meticulous editing. I am thankful for the opportunity to be her student and for the continued belief she has shown in me. Her thoughtful guidance and kind encouragement have been truly invaluable.

I am deeply grateful to Prof. Ashutosh Biswal, Dean of the Faculty of Education & Psychology and Head of Education (CASE), for his invaluable support and guidance throughout my research. I also extend my heartfelt thanks to my mentors at the Faculty of Education & Psychology for their unwavering encouragement, both academically and personally, and for their continuous assistance, especially through their insightful recommendations.

I am deeply grateful to Professor Netrananda Pradhan for their time and invaluable suggestions. I would also like to extend special thanks to Prof. Rashmin Sompura for their guidance and support throughout my journey. I would like to acknowledge to Under Secretary to Odisha Govt. ST & SC Development Welfare department and all District Welfare Officer for their approval. I appreciate all the experts who contributed to my research and assisted with the validation of the data collection tool, despite their busy schedules. My sincere thanks go to all the teaching and non-teaching staff, as well as to the research scholars, for their help and support. I want to extend my heartfelt appreciation to Dr. Kishori Das for their continuous assistance. She was as supportive as always & she should be appreciated for providing a sense of calm while I'm on the go. My thanks also extended to Prof. Garuda Dwaja Barik for everything he had done to help me reach my objective. I would like to extend thanks to Sambit Rout, teacher from Papadahandi the scheduled tribe and scheduled caste Development high school and Dr. Anshuman Das, Assistant Professor, Department of Education, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for his continuous support.

My gratitude also goes to my parents without their support throughout the past few years, I would not have been able to finish my degree. In conclusion, I am thankful to God, who is always there to give me the strength & motivation I need.

Mr. Satyajit Baral
