

Acknowledgements

First of all I express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Arun Pratap and my co-supervisor Prof. Kirit N. Lad to give me this opportunity to work with them. I truly admire their valuable guidance and continuous encouragement throughout my journey of the PhD research work.

I would like to acknowledge the University Grants Commission (UGC), New Delhi for the Savitribai Jyotirao Phule Single Girl Child Fellowship (SJSGC) 202223 [F. No. 82-7/2022(SA-III)]. I extend sincere thanks to Mr. Timothy Spencer from the Institute for Photonics & Advanced Sensing (IPAS), The University of Adelaide, Australia for providing the specimen of ZBLAN glass for the part of research presented in the thesis.

I acknowledge Dr. C. G. Limbachiya, the Head of Department and, Prof. Dhanesh Patel, Dean of the Faculty of Technology and Engineering for providing research facilities. I am thankful to Dr. B. S. Chakrabarty, Ex-Head, Department of Applied Physics for the support and facilitation for my research work during his tenure. I sincerely thank Prof. Jignesh Pandya, Prof. Arun Anand and Dr. N. K. Acharya for their help, guidance and motivation. I am thankful to all my teachers of the department for their co-operation. I also express my thanks to my colleagues and friends Priyanka, Chetna, Madhusree, Avani di, Kevil, pooja, Deepak, Harsh, Dhaval, Smruti, Neha, Navin, Pavan, Dhavalbhai, Sohanbhai and Kavita madam for being there with me always and supported me when I needed. I also very thankful to other colleagues from Sardar Patel University Kamal, Jayraj, Rishabh, Mitanshu and Gaurav for their support during my stay at Vidyanagar.

I express my heartfelt gratitude to my parents for their patience and continued encouragement. Without their cooperation and moral support, it would not have been possible to complete this work. Last but not the least, a big thanks to my beloved husband Dr. Nakul Soni for his constant support throughout this work.
