

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Shri Krishna in कर्मयोग of Bhagvad Gita directs,

“मयि सर्वाणि कर्माणि संन्यस्याध्यात्मचेतसा। निराशीर्निर्ममो भूत्वा युध्यस्व विगतज्वरः ॥3.30॥

"Surrender all your actions to Me with a focused mind on the Self, free from desire and ego. Fight without anxiety or attachment."

The successful completion of this thesis has been a remarkable journey filled with learning, growth, and challenges. It would not have been possible without the support, guidance, and encouragement of several individuals and institutions, to which I extend my deepest gratitude.

I bow down with respect to the Divine Devi Shakti which resides on this Earth in form of Mother, Teacher, Grand Mother, Wife, Sister, Daughter, Friend, and all the forms of Feminine energy. I thank you for being my guiding force and inspiration.

First and foremost, I bow in deep gratitude to God Almighty, whose blessings, grace, and guidance have been my greatest source of strength throughout this journey. It is only by His divine will that I have been granted the wisdom, patience, and perseverance to complete this thesis. His presence has been a constant source of hope and encouragement, especially in times of difficulty and uncertainty.

I am immensely grateful to my esteemed guide and mentor, Dr. Krutika K. Sawant, for her invaluable guidance, patience, and mentorship throughout this research. Her expertise, insightful feedback, and unwavering support have played a crucial role in refining my work, strengthening my research skills, and broadening my perspective. Her dedication and encouragement have been a constant source of motivation, and I truly appreciate the time and effort she invested in helping me shape this thesis.

I am also immensely thankful to Dr. Petla Y. Naidu, Head of the Research and Development (Injectable R&D) department, Alembic Research Centre at Alembic Pharmaceuticals Limited, where I have the privilege of working. His unwavering support, professional guidance, and encouragement have greatly influenced my ability to balance work and research. His leadership and motivation have inspired me to approach challenges with confidence, and I deeply appreciate his willingness to provide valuable insights and resources that contributed to the success of this study.

I want to express my sincere gratitude to Former deans Prof. (Dr.) Sadhna J. Rajput, and Prof. (Dr.) Krutika K. Sawant, and Dr. Kirti Patel, Dean, Faculty of Pharmacy, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for making generous provisions of excellent facilities and providing a stimulating research environment. I thank them for their kindness, co-operation, continuous enthusiasm, and inspirational words. I would like to express my heartiest thanks to other faculty members namely, Late Prof. Ambikanandan Misra, Dr. Hetal Thakkar, Dr. Hemal Tandel, Dr. Rajshree Mashru, Dr. Prashant Murumkar, Dr. Navnit Prajapati, Dr. Bhavik Chauhan, and Dr. Milind Thosar for their support and help. I also express my thanks to all the coordinators during my tenure, for their constant support and for providing the best instrument and other research facilities. I also express my heartiest thanks to Bharat sir, Vaishali ma'am, Kiran bhai, Binit bhai, Jalpa ma'am, Bhavin Bhai, and Bhoomi ma'am for their help and support. I would like to thank all non-teaching staff members Prashant bhai, Nagin bhai, Pravin Bhai, Pramod bhai, and Jagdish bhai at G. H. Patel Pharmacy Building, Vadodara.

I would like to specially acknowledge Dr. Rajasekhara Reddy S. for showing confidence in me and supporting me to enrol myself in Ph.D. programme. I am very much thankful to Ms. Ruhi Shah for helping me to approach Krutika Ma'am for mentorship and guidance. I express my sincere gratitude to Mr. Chandrajeet Sagar for supporting me in my decisions, and allowing me to manage Ph.D. life and Professional life balance in my own way.

I am very much thankful to Mr. Pranay Darji, Mr. Jigar Pancholi, Mr. Ashish Kanhed, Mr. Ashish Dwivedi, Mr. Sumit Pareek, Mr. Sagar Masani, Ms. Pinal Talpada, Mr. Chirag Shingala, Mr. Abhijeet Solanki, Mr. Drupad Sharma, Dr. Krutagn Patel, Dr. Vivek Pawar, Dr. V. I am very much thankful to our security staff for tolerating me during long nights of experimentation, execution, and writing thesis at Alembic. I am very much indebted to Mr. Vijay Singh (Dept. Security In-charge) for serving me the tea during nights to ensure that I am awake and focused writing my thesis. I am very much thankful to our lab attendants Mr. Bhavin Parmar, Mr. Kaushik Nizama, and Mr. Sunil Baria for providing me timely support during my experimental work.

I am very grateful to selfless support of my fellow Ph.D. scholars Dr. Parva Jani, Dr. Lalji Rathod, Dr. Ankit Javia, Mr. Hardik Parmar, Mr. Parin Choksi, Mr. Amit Dabke, Mr. Samarth Kumar, and Ms. Ami Patel who made themselves available for discussions and advices which was a great help in my research. This acknowledgement would have been incomplete if I did not appreciate the efforts of M. Pharm students of all the batches from 2018 to 2025 from all Departments of Faculty of Pharmacy at The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, especially Mr. Priyansh Pandya, Mr. Yash Mistry, Mr. Amit Kushwaha, Mr. Dinesh Gangoman, Mr. Aman Mourya, Mr. Harsh Patel, Mr. Ravi Pandey who, with their various queries, have given me the opportunity to learn those theoretical and practical aspects that were beyond the scope of my research work and have extended my outreach in understanding the subject widely.

Special thanks to Dr. Pravin Patil, Dr. Sagar Patel, Ms. Shivangi Patel, Ms. Mrunal Rahangdale and my course work friends Dr. Brijesh Patel, Mr. Dishant Prajapati, Mr. Amal Chotai, and Mr. Nishan Umap whose help, support, and guidance made my research pathway and Ph.D. journey simpler. Joyous moments spent with them would be worth remembering.

Writing this part is makes me more excited as well as emotional because support from my friends was very crucial part without whom the journey would not have been possible. I thank Trushil Joshi, Dhruval Nandurkar, Arpit Shah, and Tanvi Arpit Shah from the bottom of my heart for everything.

I would like to thank Dr. Tejal Shah Mehta, Dr. Jigna Shah, and Ms. Kinal Soni from Nirma University for prompt and timely support in completing Animal studies. I would like to express my gratitude to Team of Sophisticated Analytical Instrument Facility (SAIF) at North-Eastern Hill University (NEHU), Shillong for supporting me in TEM related activities. I am very much thankful to Mr. Paresh Patel and Mr. Pratik Zanzarukiya of PNP Analytical Solutions for timely analytical support.

I express my reverence and gratitude to my Grandfather Dr. Bhasker J. Vankani, Father Krushnachandra Vankani, and Mother Meenaben Vankani who despite facing all hardships of life made me capable enough to reach here and provided me more than what I deserve. A very special and personal note of appreciation goes to my beloved wife, Dolly Vankani, whose love, patience, and encouragement have been my greatest source of motivation. I also express my reverence and gratitude to my Father-In-Law Dineshbhai Gokani, and Mother-In-Law Hemaxiben Gokani for supporting me and showing confidence, faith and trust in me. I am thankful to my family for unwavering support and sacrifices that have enabled me to focus on my research, and their belief in me has given me the strength to overcome challenges. To my dear son, Vishvam, your innocent smiles, and boundless energy have reminded me of the importance of perseverance and hard work. Even when I was occupied with research, your presence brought light and happiness into my life. A special thanks to my sisters Krishaa, Vishva, Hiral, Jinal, and Niyatee for blessing me on each every stage of my Ph.D. to ensure that I am always motivated.

Finally, I extend my gratitude to all my family, friends, and well-wishers who have supported me in countless ways throughout this journey. This thesis is a testament to their love and encouragement, and I am truly grateful for their presence in my life.

Last but not the least I pay my reverence to this institute, Faculty of Pharmacy, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda. I am undeniably proud to be associated with this great Institution and University, its rich heritage and unique lineage.

Lastly, I would like to apologize to all those who I have not mentioned by name but have asked them favours without inhibition whenever, whatsoever required.

Above all, I thank the supreme power for bringing me down to my knees, so that I could stand up again.
