

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Research is a co-operative activity. Though one person undertakes it, he/she is dependent on so many others for ideas, suggestions, criticisms, references, etc. The investigator acknowledges with gratitude, the co-operation extended by all those he can not mention by name for want of space. However, the following personalities have helped the investigator more particularly and in many constructive ways.

Throughout this work the influence of Guide and Teacher, Dr. Madhuben M. Shah, will be obvious. Her erudition, her mastery over the subject and her ungrudging help inspired at every stage and goaded to overcome the difficulties which threatened this work. No words can be found adequate to express a debt owed to her.

The investigator regards this opportunity to thank Professor D.B. Desai, Dean of the Faculty of Education and Psychology and Head, The Centre of Advanced Study in Education, who too gave his valuable time and helped unhesitatingly, in different ways at different times.

The investigator wishes to record most sincere appreciation of Dr. R.H. Dave, (Unesco, Paris) for giving his time and technical expertise during the development of "Attitude Scale Construction for Teacher Educators."

The investigator would like to acknowledge his indebtedness to Dr. B.U. Parekh of State Institute of Education, Gujarat State for valuable suggestions in tool construction.

Among the many friends and well-wishers who helped him in his research in one way or the other he would like to mention the name of Professor M.B. Buch, Ex-Head of Centre of Advanced Study in Education, Dr. Pramilaben B. Dekhtawala whose guidance proved to be precious. Prof. Gunvant B. Shah, Head, Department of Education, South Gujarat University, for his valuable suggestions in research and to the colleagues on the staff of the B.C.J. College of Education, Cambay Principal G.V. Mahant, Prof. B.J. Dholakia and Prof. M.J. Patel who took interest in investigation. He is extremely thankful to the Principals and Teacher-Educators of the 37 education colleges of Gujarat who have participated in the present research.

Finally, the investigator desires to place a note of special appreciation of his wife, Jashodaben and daughter, Mital for their constant encouragement and sharing inconvenience caused during this research work.

Most grateful thanks should also go to Mr. Chimanbhai N. Kachhia for his interest and care in typing.
