

Appendix - 3

Name of the student :

Name of the school :

Dear student,

Below you will find number of statements. You will find that you agree with some of the statements, but disagree with others. Please read the statements and decide whether you strongly agree, agree, disagree or strongly disagree with the statements. Please answer as honestly, carefully and quickly as you can. There are no right or wrong answer..!sl

For example :

Statement	Strongly Agree 1	Agree 2	Dis- agree 3	Strongly disagree 4
1. Classroom lessons teach us to become self-disciplined individuals.		✓

If you are agree with the statement put your tick mark '✓' in (2) column.

Statement	1	2	3	4
1. Classroom lessons teach us to become self-disciplined individuals.
2. I consider exams. to be a necessary part of learning.
3. I like doing exams. because I think it develops my character.
4. I like exams. because they help me to organise my thoughts.
5. Studying in class develops in us the ability to co-operate with one another.
6. I like participating in classroom lessons because they help me to organise my thoughts.
7. Exams. teach us to become self-disciplined individuals.
8. Preparing for exams. develops in me the ability to persevere.
9. People look up to you if you do well in exams.
10. When I do not well in exams. my mother gets quite upset.
11. I work hard to please my parents.
12. If I fail in my exams. my family will be disgraced.
13. I try to score high marks in exams. so that my friends will not think I am dull.
14. I study hard in class to compete with my classmates.
15. I would like to do well in class so that my teachers will be pleased.
16. If I do not work hard in class, my classmates will get ahead of me.

Statement	1	2	3	4
17. What is most important is that I should enjoy my studies even if I do not do well in exams.
18. I study just to pass exams.
19. If there was a choice, I would select subjects in which it is easy to score marks even if I am not interested in them.
20. Studying for exams. interferes with the subjects I am really interested in.
21. I study because my parents make me to do so.
22. I study only those topics prescribed in the syllabus for the exams.
23. I study in order to do well in my exams. rather than for the interest in the subject.
24. The only reason for my studying is to pass exams.
25. I want to find a job where I can be creative and original.
26. Doing well in class gives me a great deal of pleasure.
27. I want to find a job where I can develop my interests.
28. Passing well in exams. gives me a great deal of pleasure.
29. I want to find a job where I can demonstrates and develop my abilities and skill.
30. When I am not doing well in class I try harder.
31. I chose the subjects I am studying because I enjoy studying them.

Statement	1	2	3	4
32. Learning is an important personal experience.
33. My mother does not worry about tests scores and reports.
34. It will not worry me too much if I end up in a job that is not terribly interesting.
35. I do not like studying because the subjects are really boring.
36. I do not care very much about doing well in exams.
37. Taking exams. does not interest me.
38. It will not worry me too much if I do not get a job when I finish my education.
39. I do not care very much about doing well in my studies.
40. Taking exams. makes me feel helpless.
41. I do extra reading in the subjects I like.
42. I enjoy taking exams.
43. I like exams. because they help me in my learning.
44. I like studying because most of my school subjects are really interesting.
45. I prefer quiet difficult and challenging lessons rather than easier ones.
46. I will continue to study the subjects I like even after the exams. are finished.
47. I prefer quite difficult tests rather than easier ones.
48. I find most of my subjects really exciting and gripping.

Statement	1	2	3	4
49. It is important that I find a job when I finish my studies.
50. I hope to find a job that is highly regarded by others.
51. I am learning now to enter a prestigious University/Job.
52. I hope to find a job that provides great opportunities for advancement.
53. The exams. will determine how successful I am in later life.
54. I like to do well in exams. because it will help me to get better job qualification.
55. Exam. success in what I have aimed for throughout my learning.
56. I hope to find a job that brings great financial benefits.				