

Acknowledgement

The investigator acknowledges with grateful thanks the assistance rendered by several gentlemen and organisations in the design, conduct and completion of this research project.

His thanks are especially due in abundance :

To Dr. D. B. Desai, Professor and Head, Centre of Advanced Studies in Education, Baroda who as a friend, philosopher and guide was mainly instrumental for this project to be taken up and whose deep erudition, profound scholarship and keen intellect made a deep impact on the investigator in the pursuit of his study.

To Dr. S. Purushothaman, Professor, Sri Ramakrishna Vidyalaya College of Education, Coimbatore who, in addition to providing technical assistance in several ways offered the investigator the much needed solace and comfort and encouraged him to start afresh and complete the task when the investigator lost all his papers – the result of nearly 3 Years' hard work – in a mini - tragedy of circumstances.

To the Heads, teachers, parents, students and managements of schools for their ready assistance and willing cooperation in furnishing data for the project, especially when the investigator troubled most of them a second time to fill in the questionnaires and

To several others who in one way or other associated themselves directly or indirectly in this project at one or more stages.

INVESTIGATOR