

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is with deep appreciation that I express my thanks to the following persons whose significant contributions have made this work possible.

Words can not adequately express my indebtedness to my guide Dr. V.D. Thomas, Reader in the Faculty of Education and Psychology, CASE, Baroda who has kindly guided this research work. Indeed his sustained guidance, help and encouragement have been a source of strength to my work. I pay my gratitude to him for which I have no words to express.

I thank Prof. R.G. Kothari, former Dean and Head and Prof. S. Kumar, the dean of Faculty of Education and Psychology, Head of the Department, CASE for providing me academic and administrative support.

I thank all the members of the faculty of Education and Psychology who directly or indirectly have contributed towards my work.

I would like to thank all the Research Scholars, my seniors as well as juniors at CASE for their constant support and friendly guidance.

I express my deep heartfelt gratitude to Ms Tara Mani Moktan, Principal, Govt. New Senior Secondary School, Namchi, South Sikkim for allowing me to conduct intervention programme. I am also immensely grateful to the staff and the students of class VIII for their adjustment and cooperation made during the period of data collection.

I am grateful to Sr. Delphine, Principal of Jesus and Mary School, Vadodara who allowed me to use School Library facility which made my work easier.

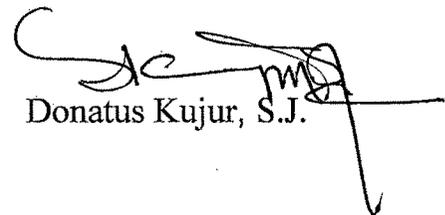

I am grateful to Fr. Ramon Eizaguirre, S.J. for his untiring efforts to go through the first draft of the thesis and making the necessary corrections.

I am also grateful to Mr. Vikram Chettri for his help in typing the thesis.

My sincere thanks to the Jesuit Community of Rosary High School for their support and encouragement during the period of my stay in Vadodara.

I take this opportunity of expressing my deep sense of gratitude and sincerest thanks to Fr. Daniel Bara, S.J. Principal, Loyola College of Education, Namchi, Sikkim, Rev. Fr. Frederick Barick, S.J. former Provincial and Rev. Fr. Peter Pappu, S.J., Provincial of Darjeeling Province for their continued help and encouragements.
