

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis is a culmination of my research work leading to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in chemistry. It gives me immense pleasure to acknowledge all those who have contributed to the conclusion of my research.

First and foremost I offer my heartfelt gratitude to my research supervisor, Dr. Ashutosh V. Bedekar, Professor, Department of Chemistry, Faculty of Science, for giving me the opportunity to work under his guidance to pursue my Ph.D. degree. His able guidance and constant support inspired me to work hard and to put more efforts in my research and study. His constant involvement, keen knowledge and interest in the subject proved to be a major contribution to this work. I successfully overcame many difficulties and learned a lot under his guidance. I am heartily thankful to him for his constant encouragement and invaluable guidance.

With lots of gratitude I would like to thank Prof. N. D. Kulkarni, Head, Department of Chemistry for providing the infrastructural facilities for my research work, and I gratefully acknowledge Prof. B. V. Kamath, Former Head, Department of Chemistry, for his understandings and encouragement which has provided solid foundation for initial tenure of this effort. I also wish to thank all teachers of the department, particularly Prof. S.R. Shah, and Prof. P. Padmaja for their constant help during the entire period of my research.

I take this opportunity to sincerely acknowledge CSIR, New Delhi, for the award of JRF and SRF and for providing financial assistance which has enabled me to take up this work comfortably.

I am deeply grateful to my lab colleagues Dr. Harish Talele, Dr. Akeel Saiyed, Dr. Anju Chaudhary, Dr. Nilesh Jain, Dr. Krupa Patel, Mr. Aditya Khanvilkar, Ms. Riddhi Gupta, Mr. Gaurav Upadhyay, Ms. Blessy Rajan, Mr. Hiten Raval, Mr. Parvinder Singh, Dr. Poonam Yadav, Dr. Nilesh Patel for their help, co-operation, fruitful discussions and support during my Ph.D. work.

I extend my thanks to Dr. Shiba Prasad Sahoo and his team, (Sun Pharma Advance Research Centre, Vadodara) for recording some $^1\text{H-NMR}$, CD spectra and Microanalysis. I would like to thank Dr. Ampapathi Ravi Shankar, Mr. Gajender Singh CDRI, Lucknow for recording variable temperature $^1\text{H-NMR}$. I express my thanks to Mr. Jayaraman Kannappan, Apicore pharmaceuticals Ltd. for initially providing HPLC analysis, and my friends Mr. Someshwer Rao, Dr. Deepak Singh, Mr. Ramchander Reddy and Mr. B. Rajashekar Anna for mass analysis.

My heartfelt thanks to all non-teaching staff members specially Mr. Kailash Rane, Mrs. Revathi Ganesh, Mr. D.R. Bhavsar, Mr. Ninad Mehta, Mr. Hitesh Rawal, Vasantbhai, Dineshbhai, Rajeshbhai, Maheshbhai, Kalpeshbhai, Vinodbhai, Late Mr. Suresh Patel and all other members for their timely help.

I will also like to extend my huge and warm thanks to my departmental colleagues for their help and co-operation during my work. It's worth to thank the people from my native place Ramakkapet for their love and strong moral support. The list includes my school, intermediate, B.Sc and M.Sc teachers and friends, Mr. Mallaiah sir, Mr. Balaprasad sir, Dr. Srinivas sir, Dr. Manohor sir, Dr. Vasundhara Madam, Dr. Bhasker sir, and friends, S. Ramu, M. Praveen, Dr. K. Srinivas, Haribabu, Kanni, Sudi, all Bhaskers, Sangeevlu, Venkat Raju anna, Dr. Chetti Raju Kaviraju, Vijay, Raju, Rakesh, and special thanks to all my PGCB (M.Sc) friends.

Without any doubt, I am extremely indebted to my parents Shri. Mothuku. Pochaiiah (Bapu), Smt. Mothuku. Keshamma (Amma), who have always been by my side through all ups and downs of my life and have constantly encouraged and staunchly supported me during the diverse times. Dear "Amma" and "Bapu", it is hard to express my thanks to you in words. Your understanding, faith, advice, intellectual spirit and indescribable support to me throughout my life are invaluable. I am very grateful about your care, love, affection and trust in me and further thank you for your constant interest and positive stimulation. I thank them for inculcating the values of education which, I think, makes me a better person and a better researcher.

Most importantly, my heartfelt thanks to my brothers Mr. Yadagiri, Mr. Narsimulu, sisters-in-law Mrs. Yadamma, Mrs. Jasnave, and sister Mrs. Renuka Devi, brother-in-law Mr. Srinivas garu, father's mother Rajavva (Nanamma) for making me feel special in every stage of my life and stood behind me to boost up to achieve my targets. I also thank my brother's sons and daughters Nikhil, Mukunda Sai, Anandini, Navya, Abhinav, and nephew Nithin and niece Akshya for spreading happiness and liveliness in my life.

I would take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude and love to my brother, Mr. Yadagiri and my teacher Dr. Chenna Krishana Reddy sir for his unfailing and loving support as well as irreplaceable assistance. Words will always be less to explain his role as my friend, philosopher, guide, assistance.

I would also like to express my gratitude to all those whom I may have failed to mention above, but nonetheless have contributed to my research studies in one way or the other.

Above all, I have no words to thank the Almighty God for giving me inspiration and sustainable strength and easing my difficulties and opening the doors of success to contribute to the society.

Finally I would like to dedicate this thesis to my family.
