

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am greatly indebted to my guide, Dr.M.S. Yadav, Professor of Education, in the Centre of Advanced Study in Education at the M.S. University of Baroda, who gave me the benefit of his valuable guidance at all stages of this study. His critical evaluation and judgment helped me to improve my work tremendously.

I am equally grateful to the Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, M.S. University of Baroda, for the opportunity given to me to carry out this study under the auspices of the Faculty.

With a deep sense of gratitude, I acknowledge the help and cooperation extended to me by many of my colleagues and friends, at the National Council of Educational Research and Training, New Delhi; Centre of Advance Study in Education, Baroda; and other institutions, at various stages of this study.

I am also indebted to the National Council of Educational Research and Training, for the study leave, contingency grants and the data processing facilities, without which this study would not have been possible.

I am obliged to the Directorate of Education of the Delhi Municipal Corporation, the Head Masters, teachers and students of the concerned schools, for their cooperation at the data collection stage.
