First and foremost I would like to express my profound heartfelt sentiments of infinite gratitude to my guide Dr. Deepti Oza who has led me like a teacher, encouraged me like a well wisher and guided me like professional. Words fall short to describe her valuable guidance of par excellence, suggestions and constructive insight, which enlightened me. My ever-lasting gratitude and reverences goes to her. I owe thanks to her for the continuous ground support enriching me with infinite knowledge and metamorphosing me into a researcher.

I express my indebtedness to Dr. Kumar, Dean, and faculty of education psychology for providing me with excellent facilities, resources and infrastructure needed for carrying out this research.

I also wish to thank DR. R.G. Kothari, former dean, and faculty of education psychology for his humble support and guidance in the initial phase of my research.

I'm extremely grateful to the District primary education officer Mr. R.J.Macchi for giving me permission to collect data and the school staff, children, parents and committee members who were my sample. I am extremely thankful to the block resource coordinator Mr. Dhanshukbhai Chauhan and cluster resource coordinator Mr. Jashubhai Parmar for extending unconditional and warm support in completing the data collection and its verification.

Words fall short to express my everlasting love for my parents Prof. K.D.Oza and Kantaben Oza for giving me life in first place, for educating me and providing unconditional support and encouragement.

I am indebted to my husband Mr. Keyur Trivedi for his continuous support and pursue to complete the thesis even when they stretched beyond the means. Without his constant encouragement this thesis would have never seen the light of the day. He was always there to listen and give advice. He showed me different ways to approach a research problem, proof read my chapters and taught me how to ask the questions and express my ideas.

I am thankful to my daughter Vihangi Trivedi for giving me unconditional support by managing herself without any complains, my father in law Mr. Mahendrabhai Trivedi for compromising his schedules and fatherly support.

I am thankful to my sister Sheela for providing related reading material with immense care, Charulata, Chandrika, brothers Nitinbhai and Milind and Brother in law Pradip kumar. Nishant, Jitesh, Neha, Darshit, Prachi and Rujul.

It is indeed my pleasure to thank Dr. Vidyut Joshi and Dr. Tara Lulla whose timely assistance and inspiring suggestions enabled me to focus my views in the proper perspective.

I would like to thanks to my colleagues Dr.Ronak, Mr. Nair, Sandeep, Ajaybhai, Rushikeshbhai, Rajendrabhai, Sneha, Prernaben my field supporter Vikram and Gufur as they really supported me in my difficult times. I always fall back on them and never disappointed me.

I wish to thank to the librarian of CASE library for providing me with all the learning resources and Rajputbhai and Ranabhai for their timely help regarding the official procedures.

Finally I would like to thanks to all those who stood by me during the period of the research and directly or indirectly made it possible for me to complete this research work.
