

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the Faculty of Education and Psychology, the Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, for giving me the opportunity to conduct this research.

My heartfelt thanks to the Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, the Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, and the Head of the Department, CASE, Baroda for accepting me as a research scholar in the Faculty of Education and Psychology.

I am extremely grateful to my Guide, Dr. Thomas Vadaya, Reader, CASE, Baroda for his scholarly guidance during the entire course of this investigation. He has truly been my Guide, Friend and Philosopher.

I would like to thank all the Research Scholars, my Seniors as well as Juniors at CASE for their constant support and friendly guidance.

I cannot even imagine to leave out the Principal, Teachers and the Students of New Light Academy, Namchi Sikkim from the list. Without their cooperation this investigation would not have been possible. I would remain ever grateful to them for their cooperation and availability.

My sincere thanks to Fr. Donatus Kujur, S.J., my companion and colleague for his constant support during the course of this investigation and for his help in proof-reading the manuscripts of this thesis.

Finally, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my fellow Jesuits of the Darjeeling Province as well as the Jesuit Community at Rosary High School Baroda for their help and support.
