

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my profound gratitudes to Dr. M.B. Buch, Retired Director, Centre of Advanced Study in Education, M.S. University, Baroda, under whose guidance and supervision I have carried out this research work. His encouragement and guidance were always available to me; but for his assistance, this research work could not have been completed. I am grateful to Dr. Dharni P. Sinha, Director, Special Studies Division, Administrative Staff College of India, Hyderabad for providing me facilities and motivations to complete the research work.

My profound thanks are due to Dr. D.C. Joshi, Reader in Higher Education, Centre of Advanced Study in Education, M.S. University, Baroda and Mr. V.S.A. Durai, Editor, Administrative Staff College of India, Hyderabad who assisted me in various ways and made important suggestions. I am thankful to Mr. Rajiv O. Gandhi, Lt. Suresh Kumar Sharma, Miss Kamlesh Garg, Mr. V. Subha Rao, Mrs. Purnima Sinha, Dr. Piloooben Buch and Miss Amina Shamim for their assistance and stimulation to complete the research work.

II

I would like to place on record my sincere thanks to Directors of national level educational institutions and state institutes of education, principals of teachers' training colleges and heads of the University departments of education, whose cooperation enabled me to complete the research work. I feel indebted to my parents for their continuous encouragement and sincere advice.
