

LIST OF TABLES

|                  |  |     |
|------------------|--|-----|
| Table I.1        | The National Standard of Educational System, Ministry of Education, Department of Teacher Education, Thailand (1983).                                | 13  |
| Table I.2        | Organigramme of the Ministry of Education, Thailand.   | 15  |
| Table I.3        | Organigramme of the Department of Teacher Education, Thailand.   | 17  |
| Table I.4        | Organigramme of the United Colleges, Department of Teacher Education.  | 19  |
| Table I.5        | Organigramme of the Teacher College, Thailand  | 22  |
| Table II.1       | Summary of various problems faced during different stages of the project.  | 105 |
| Table III.1      | Category of the selected colleges, cooperating schools and villages from the eight United Colleges in Thailand                                       | 114 |
| Table III.2      | Category of samples from each Teachers College   | 115 |
| Table III.3      | Numbers of items in each one of the ten aspects  | 119 |
| Table III.4      | Number of aspects and items in section-3   | 121 |
| Table III.5      | Distribution of items related to various aspects of the TERD Project.  | 122 |
| Table IV.2.D     | Perceptions of product personnels of the TURTEP regarding the usefulness of the Project.   | 156 |
| Table IV.3.A.1   | Perceptions received from Directors regarding the orientation courses provided to student teachers before their practice teaching.                   | 161 |
| Table IV.3.A.3   | Perceptions of the Directors, T.C. staff members, Head-masters, Cooperating Teachers and student teachers regarding the adequacy of course contents. | 163 |
| Table IV.3.D.1   | Personal data of Directors of the TERD Project and T.C. staff members involved in the TERD Project.  | 170 |
| Table IV.3.D.1 a | Teaching experience of Directors, and T.C. staff members involved in the TERD Project.   | 171 |
| Table IV.3.D.1 b | Experiences of Directors and T.C. staff members in supervising the TERD Project.   | 172 |

|                  |   |     |
|------------------|---|-----|
| Table IV.3.D.1 c | Work-load in (hours) per week of Directors and T.C. staff members involved in the TERD Project.   | 173 |
| Table IV.3.D.3   | Informations received from the T.C. staff members regarding the personnel of the TERD Project.  | 175 |
| Table IV.3.D.4   | Perceptions of village chiefs and village people regarding the personnels involved in the TERD Project.   | 177 |
| Table IV.3.E.2   | Informations received from the T.C. staff members regarding the implementation of the TERD Project.   | 182 |
| Table IV.3.I.2   | Informations received from T.C. staff members regarding the participation of the student teachers in the TERD Project.  | 189 |
| Table IV.4.A.1   | Perceptions of Directors and T.C. staff members regarding the TERD Project is helpful for Teachers College.   | 191 |
| Table IV.4.B.1   | Perceptions of Directors, T.C. staff members, School Head-masters, cooperating teachers, and student teachers regarding developmental effects of the TERD Project towards development of rural schools. | 194 |
| Table IV.4.C.1   | Responses on developmental effects of the TERD Project regarding various activities which help to develop the rural villages as perceived from seven groups of respondents.                             | 198 |
| Table IV.4.D.1   | Perceptions of Directors, T.C. staff members, Head-masters, cooperating teachers, and student practice teachers regarding the TERD Project is helpful to the student teachers.                          | 203 |
| Table IV.4.E.1   | Problems and limitations in different aspects of the TERD Project as perceived by T.C. staff members, Head-masters, cooperating teachers, and student teachers.   | 206 |